

Over 600 Reasons To Signup For A Holy Hour Of Eucharistic Adoration

(Updated 11/12/15 - From "St. Margaret Mary Alacoque's Eucharistic Adoration" Website - www.stmmadoration.org)

Dear friend in Christ,

The trouble with our world today boils down to one thing: lack of love of our beloved Lord in the Most Blessed Sacrament of the Altar because of our lack of belief and faith in the Eucharist. To a certain degree this affects us all. If we really believed that the Eucharist is Jesus wouldn't each of us sign up for an hour of adoration in an instant? To put it another way, if we knew Jesus was literally walking around in a house in St. Louis waiting to show us the solutions to our problems in life, wouldn't we make an appointment to see Him no matter how busy we are?

All solutions and healings come from the Eucharist because the Eucharist is Jesus. It is important to make a sacrifice of our time and sign up for a specific hour of adoration simply because Jesus has gone out of His way, to descend from Heaven, to come to St. Louis to speak to us and heal us – but this takes many appointments. Jesus appreciates any visit and bestows many graces on us. But how much more will He heal us when we imitate Him and go out of our way in visiting Him by signing up for a particular Holy Hour.

Our Saints knew all of this all to well. It isn't because they were Saints that they adored the Eucharist; rather it was because they adored the Eucharist that they became Saints. Here are some of their quotes on the importance of Eucharistic Adoration in ones life:

21st Century Pope's Eucharistic Adoration Quotes

Pope Francis (2013 – Present)

Pope Francis was elected Pope on March 13, 2013 at the age of 76. He was born Jorge Mario Bergoglio on December 17, 1936 and began his public ministry when he was ordained a Jesuit Priest on December 13, 1969. He became a Bishop in 1992 when he was appointed Titular Bishop of Auca and Auxiliary Bishop of Buenos Aires. Later he became Archbishop of Buenos Aires, a post which he held until he became Pope. He was created a Cardinal in 2001 when he was appointed the post of Cardinal-Priest of San Roberto Bellarmino. He also served as Ordinary of the Ordinariate for the Faithful of the Eastern Rites in Argentina in 2013. He is very dedicated to the Eucharist and Mary. Here are some of his quotes on the importance of Eucharistic Adoration in our lives:

1. "The Catechism of the Catholic Church reminds us that in the Eucharist we find all the good of the Church. In it we have the certainty that God is faithful to His promise and stays with us until the end of time (Mt. 28.20)... In (our) visits and adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, we experience the closeness of the good Shepherd, the tenderness of His love, the presence of (a) faithful friend. We ... all experience (this) large support (in our lives) provided by faith (and our) personal and intimate dialogue with the (Lord in the Eucharist).” (Pope Francis)

2. “The certainty of this Bread Of Life is clear. That is why we love the Eucharist and adore it.” (Pope Francis)
3. “The love and admiration we spontaneously feel for Our Lady and the Eucharist must be cultivated in our Church.” (Pope Francis)

Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI (2005 – 2013)

As the prefect of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, when he was a Cardinal, this Pope supported all efforts in the establishment of Eucharistic adoration. As Pope he has given the go ahead for the establishment of Perpetual Adoration in many parishes around Rome. Here are some of his quotes on the importance of Eucharistic Adoration in our lives:

4. “Let us take time, in the course of the week, in passing, to go in and spend a moment with the Lord who is so near.” (Pope Benedict XVI)
5. “This is what is lovely about Catholic churches, that within them there is, as it were, always worship, because the Eucharistic presence of the Lord dwells always within them.” (Pope Benedict XVI)
6. “I ask everyone to intensify in coming months love and devotion to the Eucharistic Jesus and to express in a courageous and clear way the real presence of the Lord.” (Pope Benedict XVI)
7. “There is a need for silent adoration of Jesus concealed in the Host. Be assiduous in the prayer of adoration and teach it to the faithful. It is a source of comfort and light, particularly to those who are suffering.” (Pope Benedict XVI)
8. “I heartily recommend to the Church's pastors and to the People of God the practice of Eucharistic adoration, both individually and in community.” (Pope Benedict XVI)
9. “(Adoration) enables the faithful to experience the liturgical celebration more fully and more fruitfully.” (Pope Benedict XVI)
10. “The act of adoration outside of Mass prolongs and intensifies all that takes place in (it).” (Pope Benedict XVI)

11. "Only in adoration can profound and genuine reception (of the Eucharist) mature." (Pope Benedict XVI)
12. "This personal encounter with the Lord...strengthens the social mission contained in the Eucharist, which seeks to break down not only the walls that separate the Lord and ourselves, but also and especially the walls that separate us from one another." (Pope Benedict XVI)
13. "Perpetual (Eucharistic) Adoration is a neurological point of the life of faith..." (Pope Benedict XVI)
14. "I only wish to thank God...(that Perpetual Eucharistic) Adoration has been reborn everywhere in the Church." (Pope Benedict XVI)
15. "Adoration is to enter into profound heartfelt communion with the Lord, who makes Himself bodily present in the Eucharist." (Pope Benedict XVI)
16. "The development of the Eucharistic Adoration in the Middle Ages was the most coherent consequence of the Eucharistic mystery." (Pope Benedict XVI)
17. "(Eucharistic) Adoration is not opposed to Communion, nor is it merely added to it. Communion only reaches its true depths when it is supported and surrounded by Adoration." (Pope Benedict XVI)
18. "Let us beseech the Lord to reawaken in us the joy at his presence and that we may once more adore him. Without adoration, there is no transformation of the world." (Pope Benedict XVI)
19. "Today we run the risk of having our churches turned into museums and ending like museums: If they are not closed, they are pillaged. They have no life. The measure of the Church's vitality, the measure of its interior openness, will be reflected in the fact that its doors remain open, precisely because it is a church where there is constant prayer. The Eucharist, and the community that celebrates it, will be full in the measure in which we prepare ourselves in silent prayer before the presence of the Lord and become persons who want to communicate with truth." (Pope Benedict XVI)
20. "The Eucharist means God has answered: The Eucharist is God as an answer, as an answering presence. Now the initiative no longer lies with us, in the God-man relationship, but with Him, and it now becomes really serious. That is why, in the sphere of Eucharistic adoration, prayer attains a new level; now it is two-way, and so now it really is a serious business" (Pope Benedict XVI)
21. "When, in adoration, we look at the consecrated Host, the sign of creation speaks to us. And so, we encounter the greatness of His gift; but we also encounter the Passion, the Cross of Jesus and His Resurrection. Through this gaze of adoration, He draws us toward himself, within His mystery, through which He wants to transform us as He transformed the Host." (Pope Benedict XVI)
22. "The adoration of the Lord in the sacrament is also an education in sensitizing our conscience. `Christ comes into the hearts of our brothers and sisters and visits their consciences.' When the conscience becomes dulled, this lets in the violence that lays waste the world." (Pope Benedict XVI)

23. "Adoring the God of Jesus Christ, who out of love made himself bread broken, is the most effective and radical remedy against the idolatry of the past and of the present." (Pope Benedict XVI)
24. "Adoring the Body of Christ, means believing that there, in that piece of Bread, Christ is really there, and gives true sense to life, to the immense universe as to the smallest creature, to the whole of human history as to the most brief existence. Adoration is prayer that prolongs the celebration and Eucharistic communion and in which the soul continues to be nourished: it is nourished with love, truth, peace; it is nourished with hope, because the One before whom we prostrate ourselves does not judge us, does not crush us but liberates and transforms us." (Pope Benedict XVI)
25. "(Eucharistic) adoration must precede our every activity and programme, that it may render us truly free and that we may be given the criteria for our action." (Pope Benedict XVI)
26. "We cannot live, we cannot look at the truth about ourselves without letting ourselves be looked at and generated by Christ in daily Eucharistic Adoration." (Pope Benedict XVI)
27. "There is another aspect of prayer which we need to remember: silent contemplation. Saint John, for example, tells us that to embrace God's revelation we must first listen, then respond by proclaiming what we have heard and seen. Have we perhaps lost something of the art of listening? Do you leave space to hear God's whisper, calling you forth into goodness? Friends, do not be afraid of silence or stillness, listen to God, adore Him in the Eucharist. Let His word shape your journey as an unfolding of holiness." (Pope Benedict XVI)
28. "Faithfully encountering the Eucharistic Christ at Sunday Mass is essential for our journey of faith, but let us also seek to visit the Lord frequently, before His presence in the Tabernacle. ...By gazing at Him in adoration the Lord draws us to Him, to His mystery, in order to transform us as He transforms the bread and wine." (Pope Benedict XVI)
29. "He is present now as He was then in Bethlehem. He invites us to that inner pilgrimage which is called adoration." (Pope Benedict XVI)
30. "(Eucharistic) Adoration is not a luxury but a priority..." (Pope Benedict XVI)
31. "(Eucharistic) Adoration is primarily an act of faith – the act of faith as such. God is not just some possible or impossible hypothesis concerning the origin of all things. He is present. And if he is present, then I bow down before him. Then my intellect and will and heart open up towards him and from him. In the risen Christ, the incarnate God is present, who suffered for us because he loves us. We enter this certainty of God's tangible love for us with love in our own hearts. This is adoration, and this then determines my life. Only thus can I celebrate the Eucharist correctly and receive the body of the Lord rightly." (Pope Benedict XVI)

32. "Go to the encounter with Him in the Blessed Eucharist, go to adore Him in the churches, kneeling before the Tabernacle: Jesus will fill you with His love and will reveal to you the thoughts of His Heart. If you listen to Him, you will feel ever more deeply the joy of belonging to His Mystical Body, the Church, which is the family of his disciples held close by the bond of unity and love." (Pope Benedict XVI)
33. "Adoration means entering the depths of our hearts in communion with the Lord, who makes Himself bodily present in the Eucharist. In the monstrance, He always entrusts Himself to us and asks us to be united with His Presence, with his risen Body." (Pope Benedict XVI)
34. "Only within the breathing space of adoration can the Eucharistic celebration indeed be alive...Communion and adoration do not stand side by side, or even in opposition, but are indivisibly one." (Pope Benedict XVI)
35. "Adoration is recognizing that Jesus is my Lord, that Jesus shows me the way to take, and that I will live well only if I know the road that Jesus points out and follow the path he shows me." (Pope Benedict XVI)
36. "Therefore, adoration means saying: 'Jesus, I am yours. I will follow you in my life, I never want to lose this friendship, this communion with you'. I could also say that adoration is essentially an embrace with Jesus in which I say to him: 'I am yours, and I ask you, please stay with me always'." (Pope Benedict XVI)
37. "In life today, often noisy and dispersive, it is more important than ever to recover the capacity for inner silence and recollection. Eucharistic adoration permits this, not only centred on the "I" but more so in the company of that "You" full of love who is Jesus Christ, "the God who is near to us".."(Pope Benedict XVI)

Blessed Pope John Paul II (1978 – 2005)

Care should be taken to show that awareness through tone of voice, gestures, posture and bearing. In this regard, liturgical law recalls - and I myself have recently reaffirmed - the importance of moments of silence both in the celebration of Mass and in Eucharistic adoration. The way that the ministers and the faithful treat the Eucharist should be marked by profound respect. The presence of Jesus in the tabernacle must be a kind of magnetic pole attracting an ever greater number of souls enamoured of him, ready to wait patiently to hear his voice and, as it were, to sense the beating of his heart. "O taste and see that the Lord is good!" (Ps 34:8)." (Blessed Pope John Paul II)
76. "Let us take the time to kneel before Jesus present in the Eucharist, in order to make reparation by our faith and love for the acts of carelessness and neglect, and even the insults, which our Saviour must endure in many parts of the world. here or there, in order to lead the faithful to the adoration and love of her blessed Son." (Blessed Pope John XXIII)

Venerable Pope Pius XII (1939-1958)

Especially thru his 1947 Encyclical "Mediator Dei" (On the Sacred Liturgy) Pope Pius XII began a new stage in the Church's teaching on the efficacy of prayer to Jesus really present in the Sacrament of the altar. Here are some of his quotes on the importance of Eucharistic Adoration in our lives:

99. "A Holy Hour of adoration testifies to the fact that the Jesus who died on the cross, is present in the Eucharist, and reigns in Heaven, are identical." (Venerable Pope Pius XII)

But one that merits special attention is the growing realization, not only of Christ's sacrificial oblation in the Mass, but of His grace-filled presence outside of Mass." (Venerable Pope Pius XII)
102. "The key to seeing why there should be a Eucharistic worship distinct from the Mass is that the Eucharist is Jesus Christ. No less than His contemporaries in Palestine adored and implored Him for the favors they needed, so we should praise, thank Him, and implore Him for what we need." (Venerable Pope Pius XII)
103. "The Church in the course of centuries has introduced various forms of Eucharistic worship including adoration of the Blessed Sacrament publicly exposed. To be stressed is that this is not a merely passing devotional practice. It is founded on divinely revealed truth." (Venerable Pope Pius XII)
104. "This practice of adoration is based on strong and solid reasons. For the Eucharist is at once a sacrifice and a sacrament; but it differs from the other sacraments in that it not only produces grace, but contains in a permanent manner the Author of Grace Himself." (Venerable Pope Pius XII)
105. "When the Church bids us to adore Christ hidden behind the Eucharistic veils and to pray to Him for spiritual and temporal favors...she manifests faith in her divine Spouse who is present beneath these veils, she professes her gratitude to Him, and she enjoys the intimacy of His friendship." (Venerable Pope Pius XII)
106. "The Blessed Eucharist is for Its adorers an inexhaustible source of light and strength. Those who, especially in the silent hours of the night, gather together in adoration with the Angels and render to the Lamb, who was immolated, the thanksgiving due to Him, draw abundantly for themselves and for all the Church waters from the fountains of the Savior." (Venerable Pope Pius XII)

107. "The Sacred Heart of Jesus clearly revealed to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque the overwhelming sadness caused to him by the ingratitude of those who are consecrated to him most intimately. Let us ask him in earnest prayer to have pity on them at last. May those Eucharistic days, devoted to perpetual adoration, be also days of expiation and ardent prayer for sacrilegious priests!" (Cardinal Eugenio Pacelli before he became the Venerable Pope Pius XII)

Pope Pius XI (1922 - 1939)

In his 1928 Encyclical "Misericordissimus Redemptor" (Reparation to the Sacred Heart) Pope Pius XI was the first Pope, in an Encyclical, to give credence to the term of a whole Hour, a "Holy Hour", of Adoration before the Blessed Sacrament. He encouraged the faithful to spend this "Holy Hour" in reparation for the sins against the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

108. "When Christ manifested Himself to Margaret Mary, and declared to her the infinitude of His love, at the same time, in the manner of a mourner, He complained that so many and such great injuries were done to Him by ungrateful men. 'Behold this Heart', He said, 'which has loved men so much and has loaded them with all benefits, and for this boundless love has had no return but neglect, and contumely, and this often from those who were bound by a debt and duty of more special love'. In order that these faults might be washed away, He then recommended several things to be done, and in particular the following as most pleasing to Himself, namely that men should ...make expiatory supplications and prayers, prolonged for a whole hour, which is rightly called a Holy Hour. These pious exercises have been approved by the Church and have also been enriched with copious indulgences." (Pope Pius XI)
109. "The people of each diocese, district or nation, and...the whole world (should come) together to venerate and adore Christ the King hidden under the Sacramental species. Thus by sermons preached at meetings and in churches, by public adoration of the Blessed Sacrament exposed and by solemn processions, men unite in paying homage to Christ, whom God has given them for their King." (Pope Pius XI)
110. "Let the faithful hasten in large numbers to the Eucharistic board, hasten to the foot of the altar to adore the Redeemer of the world, under the veils of the Sacrament, that you, Venerable Brethren, will have solemnly exposed that day in all churches, let them pour out to that Merciful Heart that has known all the griefs of the human heart, the fullness of their sorrow, the steadfastness of their faith, the trust of their hope, the ardor of their charity. Let them pray to Him, interposing likewise the powerful patronage of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mediatrix of all graces,..." (Pope Pius XI)

Pope Benedict XV (1914 - 1922)

It was Pope Benedict XV who issued the first Code of Canon Law in 1917, which, among other things, encouraged the private and public exposition of the Holy Eucharist. Here are some of his quotes on the importance of Eucharistic Adoration in our lives:

St. Pope Pius X (1903 - 1914)

Known by many as the "Pope of the Blessed Sacrament", because of his great and deep devotion to the Eucharist, Pope Pius X was the first Pope to emphasize frequent, even daily, reception of the Eucharist. As Cardinal of Venice, before he became Pope, he started Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration there. Here are some of his quotes on the importance of Eucharistic Adoration in our lives:

113. "Perpetual Adoration of the Most Blessed Sacrament is the devotion which surpasses all others." (St. Pope Pius X)

115. "Devotion to the Eucharist is the most noble, because it has God as its object; it is the most profitable for salvation, because it gives us the Author of Grace; it is the sweetest, because the Lord is Sweetness Itself." (St. Pope Pius X)

Pope Leo XIII (1903 - 1914)

Pope Leo XIII had the privilege of opening the first International Eucharistic Congress in 1881. He praised and encouraged the laymen for bringing about the Congress and its resultant "nocturnal" adoration of the Most Blessed Sacrament. Here are some of his quotes on the importance of Eucharistic Adoration in our lives:

116. "The devotion which God sends to the succor of His Church and of the nations at the present time is the devotion to the Most Holy Eucharist. It is the highest of all devotions." (Pope Leo XIII)
117. "Our own belief is that the renovation of the world will be brought about only by the Holy Eucharist." (Pope Leo XIII)
118. "Works of this kind (Eucharistic Adoration) which have been already set on foot must be ever more zealously promoted." (Pope Leo XIII)
119. "Old undertakings must be revived wherever perchance they may have fallen into decay such as intercessory prayers before the Blessed Sacrament." (Pope Leo XIII)
120. "This Sacrament (the Eucharist)...as the object of public adoration....is to be regarded as the centre towards which the spiritual life of a Christian in all its ambit gravitates; for all other forms of devotion, whatsoever they may be, lead up to it, and in it find their point of rest." (Pope Leo XIII)

Vatican Documents Eucharistic Adoration Quotes

121. "Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is a form of Eucharistic cult which is particularly widespread in the Church and earnestly recommended to her Pastors and faithful." (Congregation For Divine Worship)
122. "This adoration is a most apt way of expressing the connection between the celebration of the memorial of the Lord's Sacrifice and his continued presence in the Sacrament of the Altar." (Congregation For Divine Worship)
123. "Indeed, this worship of adoration has a sound and firm foundation, especially since faith in the Lord's real presence has as its natural consequence the outward and public manifestation of that belief." (Congregation For Divine Worship)
124. "The devotion prompting the faithful to visit the blessed sacrament draws them into an ever deeper share in the paschal mystery and leads them to respond gratefully to the gift of him who through his humanity constantly pours divine life into the members of his Body." (Congregation For Divine Worship)
125. "Abiding with Christ the Lord, they enjoy his intimate friendship and pour out their hearts before him for themselves and for those dear to them and they pray for the peace and salvation of the world." (Congregation For Divine Worship)

126. "Offering their entire lives with Christ to the Father in the Holy Spirit, they derive from this sublime colloquy an increase of faith, hope, and charity. Thus they foster those right dispositions that enable them with due devotion to celebrate the memorial of the Lord..." (Congregation For Divine Worship)
127. "A partial indulgence is granted to the faithful who visit the Blessed Sacrament for the purpose of adoration." (Handbook Of Indulgences – Norms and Grants)
128. "A plenary indulgence is granted to the faithful who visit the Blessed Sacrament, for the purpose of adoration, for at least 1/2 Hour under the usual conditions." (Handbook Of Indulgences – Norms and Grants)
129. "The faithful are to hold the Eucharist in highest honor... worshiping it with supreme adoration." (Code of Canon Law)
130. "The Liturgy of the Hours, which is like an extension of the Eucharistic celebration, does not exclude but rather in a complementary way calls forth the various devotions of the People of God, especially adoration and worship of the Blessed Sacrament." (1178) (Catechism of the Catholic Church)
131. "The tabernacle is to be situated 'in churches in a most worthy place with the greatest honor'. The dignity, placing, and security of the Eucharistic tabernacle should foster adoration before the Lord really present in the Blessed Sacrament of the altar." (1183) (Catechism of the Catholic Church)
132. "The Catholic Church has always offered, and still offers, to the sacrament of the Eucharist the cult of adoration, not only during Mass, but also outside of it, reserving the consecrated hosts with the utmost care, exposing them to the solemn veneration of the faithful, and carrying them in processions." (1378) (Catechism of the Catholic Church)
133. "The tabernacle was first intended for the reservation of the Eucharist in a worthy place so that it could be brought to the sick and those absent outside of Mass. As faith in the real presence of Christ in his Eucharist deepened, the Church became conscious of the meaning of silent adoration of the Lord present under the Eucharistic species. It is for this reason that the tabernacle should be located in an especially worthy place in the church and should be constructed in such a way that it emphasizes and manifests the truth of the real presence of Christ in the Blessed Sacrament." (1379) (Catechism of the Catholic Church)
134. "The Church and the world have a great need for Eucharistic worship. Jesus awaits us in this sacrament of love. (1380) (Catechism of the Catholic Church)
135. "The most appropriate places for prayer are personal or family oratories, monasteries, places of pilgrimage, and above all the church, which is the proper place for liturgical prayer for the parish community and the privileged place for Eucharistic adoration." (2696) (Catechism of the Catholic Church)

Blessed Virgin Mary Eucharistic Adoration Quotes

136. "Tonight also, dear children, I am grateful to you in a special way for being here. Unceasingly adore the Most Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. I am always present when the faithful are adoring. Special graces are then being received."
(Our Lady of Medjugorje message to the world – March 15, 1984)
137. "Dear Children! Today I invite you to fall in love with the Most Holy Sacrament of the Altar. Adore Him, little children, in your Parishes and in this way you will be united with the entire world. Jesus will become your friend and you will not talk of Him like someone whom you barely know. Unity with Him will be a joy for you and you will become witnesses to the love of Jesus that He has for every creature. Little children, when you adore Jesus you are also close to me. Thank you for having responded to my call."
(Our Lady of Medjugorje message to the world – September 25, 1984)
138. "Dear children! I call you to work on your personal conversion. You are still far from meeting with God in your heart. Therefore, spend all the more time in prayer and Adoration of Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament of the Altar, for Him to change you and to put into your hearts a living faith and a desire for eternal life. Everything is passing, little children, only God is not passing. I am with you and I encourage you with love. Thank you for having responded to my call."
(Our Lady of Medjugorje message to the world – March 25, 2008)
139. The Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to 4 children six different times, at Fatima, to place devotion to the Immaculate Heart of Mary alongside the well-established devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Among the many messages and prayers she conveyed to the children was the importance of adoration of the Most Blessed Sacrament. She requested the following prayer to be said often: "Oh, Holy Trinity, we adore You. My God, my God, I love You in the Blessed Sacrament."
(Our Lady of Fatima – May 13, 1917)

21st Century Eucharistic Adoration Quotes

140. "Every time we come before the Eucharistic Heart of Jesus He touches the heart of all humanity. The Eucharist is the heartbeat of evangelization."
(Sacred Heart of Jesus Audio Tape)
141. "Through perpetual [Eucharistic] adoration Jesus longs to open up the floodgates of His merciful love on a troubled world. He longs to heal a broken humanity."
(From "Worthy Is The Lamb")
142. "Your sacrifice (of a holy Hour of adoration) will give God greater glory than the glory given Him by the shepherds and the three Wise Men. And God will honor you even more than the shepherds and the three Wise Men for all eternity for honoring His Son in the Blessed Sacrament with the humility of your sacrifice.”

(From pamphlet “The Value Of Sacrifice)

143. “Jesus is not on His Eucharistic throne to receive the adorations of the angels and to enjoy the company of the blessed? These He finds in heaven. But He is on His Eucharistic throne to receive your adorations, to listen to your confidences, and to console and alleviate your sorrows and trials.” (Fr. Jose Guadalupe Trevino)
144. “?Do not look for other excuses. Try it, and find out by your own experience. Do not wait until tomorrow. Today, go and spend a few moments with Jesus, whether He is within the tabernacle or exposed in the monstrance. Let your weary and wounded heart be penetrated by the peaceful atmosphere of the sanctuary and your soul be bathed in the light streaming forth from the Eucharistic Sun. And, tomorrow, I am sure, you will return.” (Fr. Jose Guadalupe Trevino)
145. “Beloved souls, in suffering and in joy, go to Jesus hidden in the Sacred Host and let the sweetness of His loving gaze fill you.” (Fr. Jose Guadalupe Trevino)
146. “Like the sick who expose their diseased bodies to the healing rays of the sun, expose miseries, no matter what they are, to the beams of light streaming forth from the Sacred Host.” (Fr. Jose Guadalupe Trevino)
147. “Souls dedicated to perpetual adoration, who during the hours spent before the Sacred Host would like to imitate at least from afar the fervor of those who adore in heaven, be neither surprised nor scandalized by those weaknesses: fatigue, drowsiness, dryness of spirit, and that “I can’t” feeling. If you are tempted to see in it all a sign of deficient love, you are mistaken. Much to the contrary, your displeasure at them and your battle against them are proofs of love, because they are acts of sacrifice; and suffering is the proof and nourishment of love.” (Fr. Jose Guadalupe Trevino)
148. “(Spiritual) Worship is so intimately related to authentic (Eucharistic) Adoration that they could be considered as one...Adoration connotes being present, resting, and beholding. In adoration, we are present to Jesus whose sacrifice is ever present to us. Abiding in Him, we are assimilated more deeply into His self-giving...Let us adore Him for ourselves, for the poor, for the earth, for the Church and for the life of the world.” (Archbishop Louis Antonio G. Tagle, Archbishop of Manila Phillipines)
149. “And because Jesus is the Eucharist, keeping Him in the center allows all the rich doctrines of the Church to emanate from Him, just as the beautiful gold rays stream forth from the Host in the monstrance.” (Kimberely Hahn, Catholic apologist and author)
150. “The more we are touched by the Love of God in the Eucharist, the more we need to respond to this Love. (Eucharistic) Adoration leads to mission. The connection with vocations is clear, but there is also an impulse toward a more generous stewardship of all of our gifts.” (Archbishop Paul Stagg Coakley, Archbishop of Oklahoma City)

151. "When we pray in His Eucharistic presence, He takes us beyond words, and our relationship with Him, our desire to give ourselves to Him, is deepened. It is for that reason that Eucharistic adoration flows from the Mass and leads us back to Mass. Jesus' abiding presence in the Blessed Sacrament is His way of drawing us continually into His presence." (Archbishop James Peter Sartain, Archbishop of Seattle)
152. "The first condition for the new evangelization is adoration. We must regain the ability to adore Christ in the Most Holy Eucharist if we are to bring the men and women of the twenty-first century to faith in Jesus Christ. This is one of the key themes of the pontificate of Pope Benedict XVI." (Bishop Dominique Marie Jean Rey, Bishop of Diocese of Frejus-Toulon, France)
153. "The Eucharist is the first missionary act of the Church. So if we want to be missionary towards a world in need of new saints and salvation, we have to be men and women of Eucharistic adoration... In adoration we receive the fire of love which enables us to share our conviction and have faith about the presence of God." (Bishop Dominique Marie Jean Rey, Bishop of Diocese of Frejus-Toulon France)
154. " 'Pray always!' the Good Book tells us, and Jesus exhorted us to make sure that our prayer was patient, persistent, and persevering. Eucharistic adoration accomplishes this. It tells the world that 'we can't give what we don't have,' and that, if we do not constantly turn to God in prayer for His grace and mercy, we're finished. The best thing people of faith can do is pray . . . I can't think of a better place to do that than before our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament." (Cardinal Timothy Dolan, Archbishop of New York)
155. "When the first disciples asked Jesus about following Him, He did not say, 'Come do a bunch of stuff with me.' Nope - He invited them to 'Come, stay with me!'. Eucharistic adoration is a great way to answer that invitation." (Cardinal Timothy Dolan, Archbishop of New York)
156. "We should make haste to find the Lord. To find the light that leads to grace and truth, which no darkness can overcome. At the claim that God has become man, we should drop everything to pursue him—to find Christ, and, like the shepherds, to worship him." (Archbishop Samuel Joseph Aquila, Archbishop of Denver)
157. "The invitation to be with Jesus, to live as His disciples is being given to all of us. Increasingly, young Catholics are hearing the invitation in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament – and are finding the strength to respond in times of adoration before the Eucharistic Lord. It is a hopeful sign – to have those who will soon assume roles of leadership and service in the Church – to be leading us now in appreciation for the power of the presence of the risen Christ in the Eucharist." (Archbishop George Joseph Lucas, Archbishop of Omaha Nebraska)
158. "Our RSVP (to Jesus' invitation to us in the Eucharist) can't be put off forever...The Eucharistic mystery of Christ, the Bread of Life, invites us to faith and trust, a stumbling block for many, but the heavenly banquet of divine wisdom for those who believe and for those who adore." (Bishop Leonard Paul Blair, Bishop of Toledo, Ohio)

159. "All Catholics throughout the nation should take part in Eucharistic adoration and in the praying of the Rosary for the restoration of the respect for human life and for the safeguarding of the integrity of the family." (Cardinal Raymond Burke, Prefect of the Supreme Tribunal of the Apostolic Signatura)
160. "We must pray before the Blessed Sacrament. This is what Christ wants us to do, to come before Him and listen, as He says His words, 'Come to me all you who are weary'." (Cardinal Peter Turkson, President of the Pontifical Council For Justice And Peace)
161. "Until the Church cries out that Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament is worthy of perpetual adoration for all He has done for our salvation, it will continue to be defeated by its enemies. I believe, the best, the surest and the most effective way of establishing everlasting peace on the face of the earth is through the great power of Perpetual Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament." (Archbishop Charles Maung Bo, Archbishop of Archdiocese of Yangon, Myanmar)
162. "As conscientious Catholics we are seeking to live authentically the Christian life. We are constantly searching for what more we can do to be close to God. For this reason we find Eucharistic Adoration valuable. Adoration before the Blessed Sacrament is a precious opportunity we have to be close to Christ and thereby discover sustenance and direction for our lives. You cannot be an adorer for long without noticing and others noticing change in your life. Eucharist is meant to not only sustain us as food from heaven but also to empower us to do great things for God and his Church." (Bishop Joseph N. Perry, Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese Of Chicago)
163. "Be convinced that the Lord is waiting for you to open your hearts to him in prayer. He wants to meet you personally and to enter into a dialogue with you. This conviction will fill you with an urgent desire to seek periods of silence in your daily life where you have the space to be drawn into union with God in prayer. In this regard I should like to commend to you the practice of Eucharistic Adoration... Adoration draws us away from external distractions into a growing communion with Jesus present in the Blessed Sacrament. Encourage your friends to join in this practice." (Archbishop Antonio Mennini, Papal Nuncio to Great Britain)
164. "(Eucharistic) Adoration itself is an act of witnessing when one sees many gathered in silence before the Lord. Eucharistic adoration should become part and parcel of our way of being Church." (Archbishop Buti Tlhagale, Archbishop of Johannesburg South Africa)
165. "Many have said that Eucharistic adoration promotes vocations to the priesthood and to religious life. Children, youth and adults should be taught to appreciate the beauty of silence in the presence of Jesus Christ." (Archbishop Buti Tlhagale, Archbishop of Johannesburg South Africa)
166. "As custodians of the Eucharist, it is our privilege to promote Eucharistic adoration so that those who do so may savor the grace of healing that comes from the Lord himself." (Archbishop Buti Tlhagale, Archbishop of Johannesburg South Africa)

167. "(Eucharistic adoration is) a beautiful service you render to the church and the diocese. The only greater thing you can do is Mass... Use this opportunity (Eucharistic adoration) to beg the Lord for sisters and priests for this diocese." (Bishop Robert Morlino, Bishop of Madison Wisconsin)
168. "There is a tight connection between Eucharistic Adoration and vocations." (Bishop Robert Morlino, Bishop of Madison Wisconsin)
169. "It is equally urgent to promote Eucharistic Adoration: faced with the real presence of our Lord, we cannot but adore." (Cardinal Antonio Canizares Llovera, Prefect of Congregation For Divine Worship And The Sacraments)
170. "The Church's life should centre around the Mystery of the Eucharist both in the liturgical celebration and Eucharistic Adoration. During the Synod of Bishops on the Eucharist in 2005, many Asian Bishops strongly proposed, at times insisting categorically to introduce perpetual Eucharistic Adoration in their dioceses and some of them stated that there where Eucharistic Adoration took place, greater reconciliation, peace and communion were experienced. This is possible because Jesus is present in the tabernacle as a magnetic pole 'attracting an ever greater number of souls enamored of Him, ready to wait patiently to hear His voice and, as it were, to sense the beating of His heart'." (Cardinal Robert Sarah, President of the Pontifical Council Cor Unum)
171. "I saw evidence in many parishes of a profound reverence for the Eucharist which in some parishes includes regular times for adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. The impact of a community united in prayer is powerful and far-reaching and contributes to the many fellowship activities that truly build parishes as families of faith." (Bishop Paul J. Bradley, Bishop of the Diocese of Kalamazoo Michigan)
172. "When the Eucharist is powerful in our lives (as in Eucharistic Adoration) – where Jesus Christ's love is poured out and our lives our changed – that inner journey is different. What we're searching for is different, because the Eucharist fulfills those hungers, because Jesus Christ is here as a person, truly in love with each one of us, in all of our joys and all of our sorrows, and wants to be part of your life and mine – the inner journey." (Bishop John M. Quinn, Bishop of the Diocese of Winona Minnesota)
173. "Permit me to confide in you especially the ministry of Eucharistic adoration. I ask you to remain faithful, humble and patient, even if there is no encouragement given from those around you. Many have lost the sense of Eucharistic adoration, even among the priests, consecrated persons and theologians. Do not be discouraged by negative comments or disobliging remarks that could demobilize you. Keep your faith alive in the Resurrected Christ who is truly present with His Body and Blood. Continue to witness the love of the Church that kneels before her Lord and who rests at His feet, as Mary of Bethany did, to listen long and to adore in silence." (Cardinal Marc Quellet, Prefect of the Congregation Of The Bishops)
174. "Some people are afraid that the practice of Eucharistic adoration takes away from the celebration of the Pascal mystery and the social mission in the name of the Resurrected Lord. The contrary is true. Eucharistic adoration, even outside of the Mass, helps to keep the real sense of the Mass and revive the flame of the social engagement in the name of faith. I can see how the parishes that have adoration chapels are in general the most dynamic and apostolic.”

(Cardinal Marc Quillet, Prefect of the Congregation Of The Bishops)

175. “You will discover that the place ‘par excellence’ of Eucharistic adoration is the celebration, (of the Holy Mass) and that the engagement for culture and social solidarity is a part of the necessity for the Eucharist. If sometimes their reticence signifies that the Eucharist is not the base of a convivial repast in remembrance of Jesus and that adoration does not have a place, I invite them to ask themselves if their vision of the Eucharist is still Catholic. I am convinced that the missionary vigor and the social implication of Christians only have strength if they are rooted in the adoration of the living Christ, really present in the Holy Eucharist.” (Cardinal Marc Quillet, Prefect of the Congregation Of The Bishops)
176. “Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is awakening and developing all over the world, and this will help to restore the sacredness of the liturgical celebration of the Mass.... The renewal of adoration of the Blessed Sacrament...is a sign of the times, and a great sign of encouragement.” (Cardinal Marc Quillet, Prefect of the Congregation Of The Bishops)
177. “We cannot overestimate the importance of adoring the Lord in the Most Blessed Sacrament, knowing that worship is the highest act of the People of God and an effective means toward promoting the sanctification of the Clergy, reparation for sin, and vocations to the Priesthood and to the Consecrated Life. With courage, we must ask the Lord to send forth new laborers into the harvest, and in every diocese there should be at least one church, chapel, or shrine set aside for perpetual adoration of the Eucharist, specifically for the intention of the promotion of new vocations and for the sanctification of the Clergy.” (Cardinal Mauro Piacenza, Prefect of the Congregation For The Clergy)
178. “Order (in the world) is restored above all by strongly affirming the primacy of the Risen Christ, present in the Eucharist. There is a great peaceful battle to be waged, which is that of Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration, so that the entire world can become part of a network of prayer. United to the holy Rosary, in which we reflect on the salvific mysteries of Christ together with Mary, this will generate and develop a movement of reparation and penetration.” (Cardinal Mauro Piacenza, Prefect of the Congregation For The Clergy)
179. “A rediscovery, or a discovery of Eucharistic adoration is reappearing today in Europe and indeed in other continents... It seems to allow a home (for internalizing contemplation of) Christ in the Eucharist. Some have expanded their hunger for the Eucharist (while at) Eucharistic adoration. By programming (an) hour of (Eucharistic) worship or by establishing a perpetual adoration (program), parishes felt they were worn by a new spiritual and apostolic dynamism. Surprisingly, we now see (that) young people first go through Eucharistic adoration to discover (the) Mass. This is a phenomenon not programmed, which arose when we did not expect (it) but which contributes significantly, at least for a number of people, enabling them (an) internalized, a personal approach of the Eucharist.” (Cardinal Jeane-Pierre Ricard, Archbishop of Bourdeaux-Bazas France)

180. "It is before the Eucharist that man recognizes that he has need of the Other to give him new energies for life's combats. A world without (Eucharistic) adoration is a world that would be no more than the world of production, which would soon become unbreathable. A world without adoration is not only irreligious -- it is inhuman!" (Cardinal Jean-Louis Tauran, President of the Pontifical Council For Interreligious Dialogue)
181. "Surely, no one who has beheld and adored the Eucharistic Lord can fail to see the world in a completely new way - to see things through the eyes of Christ in the Blessed Sacrament, thus to understand the Catholic response to the great social problems of our times and the necessity of responsible engagement in political life in the light of this experience of Eucharistic adoration." (Archbishop Joseph Augustine DiNoia, Secretary of the Congregation For Divine Worship)
182. "During Eucharistic adoration, it is not only we who behold Christ, but it is also He who beholds us. When we adore the Blessed Sacrament, we are not just gazing at a beautiful but inert object. The contemplative mode of prayer that we learn during adoration presupposes that Christ returns our gaze." (Archbishop Joseph Augustine DiNoia, Secretary of the Congregation For Divine Worship)
183. "It is in these significant moments (at Mass) of elevation of the Blessed Sacrament that we find the roots of Eucharistic exposition and adoration, as well as the profound connection between the Eucharistic sacrifice of the Mass and Eucharistic devotion to the Blessed Sacrament." (Archbishop Joseph Augustine DiNoia, Secretary of the Congregation For Divine Worship)
184. "In exposition, adoration and benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, we have the contemplative extension or prolongation of the Eucharistic sacrifice itself. In this way, Christians who behold, adore and receive Christ in the sacrament of the altar may continue, in a more contemplative and protracted manner, to look with love on Christ present in the Blessed Sacrament." (Archbishop Joseph Augustine DiNoia, Secretary of the Congregation For Divine Worship)
185. "This is one of the first things we see when we learn to look at everything through the perspective of Christ Himself as He gazes on us from the monstrance. We learn to see everything in the light of this divine desire to share the communion of Trinitarian life with us." (Archbishop Joseph Augustine DiNoia, Secretary of the Congregation For Divine Worship)
186. "By gazing at Christ, we come to understand our true reality and our astonishing possibilities. Our conformation to Christ is not a kind of cloning, but the realization of our distinctive and unique personal identity. The Eucharistic Christ reveals to us our true identity, and undertakes the transformation that will bring it more and more to light." (Archbishop Joseph Augustine DiNoia, Secretary of the Congregation For Divine Worship)
187. "It is not that Christ becomes more present to us (at Eucharistic Adoration outside of Mass), as Aquinas points out, but rather we become more present to Him. In beholding Him exposed to us in the monstrance, our attention is more focused and concentrated. In that sense, we become more present to Him."

(Archbishop Joseph Augustine DiNoia, Secretary of the Congregation For Divine Worship)

188. "During the Last Supper, the participants' awareness of the concrete presence of Christ asking for adoration, identified in the consecrated bread and wine (cf. Mk 14:22-24; Mt 26:26-28; I Cor 11:24-25; Lk 22:19-20), is imposing. It is therefore undeniable that the practice of Eucharistic Adoration, just as is done today in the Latin Church, has made more evident a fact that belongs to the essence of faith in the Eucharistic mystery." (Cardinal Angelo Scola, Archbishop of Milan, Italy)
189. "... one must decisively insist that both the consuming of the Eucharist and Eucharistic Adoration are always ecclesial acts. They cannot be conceived as an individual practice of piety. To adore Christ during Consecration and Communion and to adore him present in the Tabernacle implies to recognize oneself and to act as a member of his Ecclesial Body. In that way, the Eucharist is not an encounter that is finished in the act of consuming, but is a permanent encounter, just as the continuous coming of the Lord in his Church is also permanent in virtue of the Eucharistic presence.

In light of the ecclesial nature of Adoration, it is better understood why Christian piety has also united "reparation" for the sins of the world to Eucharistic Adoration: before the Lord, as members of his Body, we are all responsible for one another." (Cardinal Angelo Scola, Archbishop of Milan, Italy)

190. "The Eucharist is at the heart of our life as Catholics and adoration of the Blessed Sacrament continues to be a wonderful source of grace and support for all who seek to follow Christ faithfully....A revival in Eucharistic faith and devotion has gathered strength across the world over the last two decades. By word and example Pope John Paul II has vigorously promoted adoration of the Eucharist. Shortly after his election in 1978, he established perpetual adoration in Rome. His initiatives to promote Eucharistic adoration have been taken up by many lay people who have come to realize the centrality of the Real Presence in their daily life, prayer and active involvement nourished by contemplation." (Cardinal George Pell, Archbishop of Sydney Australia)
191. "I think that there may be some people for whom Adoration may be considered a salutary devotion, but still on the periphery of Church life. I fear there may even be priests for whom things like Holy Hours and extended periods of Eucharistic Adoration are nothing more than quaint relics of a past piety or something which ought to take second place to the pursuit of social justice and the search to find the face of Jesus in the poor. Nothing, however, could be further from the truth!" (Bishop Edward J. Slattery, Bishop of the Diocese of Tulsa Oklahoma)
192. "When someone spends time with Our Lord in the Eucharist, he or she makes a conscious and deliberate choice to belong to Christ entirely for that period, since the believer cannot be present to Christ through the mind alone or through the senses alone. Since the believer has put aside every other activity, sacrificed every lesser good which might have been accomplished in that hour for the greater good of lingering a time with Jesus, that person has made a very clear accounting of what in his or her life belongs by right to Christ. It is everything."

(Bishop Edward J. Slattery, Bishop of the Diocese of Tulsa Oklahoma)

193. "Many seminarians volunteer the fact that they discovered their vocation through devotion to the Blessed Sacrament in parishes where Eucharistic adoration was regularly scheduled with special prayers for vocations. Nationally, I am told that there are dioceses such as Wichita, where an abundance of priestly vocations can be traced to diocesan-wide Eucharistic adoration. Nor do I think it a coincidence that the three parishes in our Archdiocese with the most success at present in "growing" seminarians for Baltimore all offer parishioners opportunities for Eucharistic adoration outside of Mass." (Cardinal Edwin F. O'Brien, Grand Master of the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulcher of Jerusalem)
194. "In my pastoral letter on the Eucharist I urged the community to encourage others to become devoted to (the Blessed Sacrament)... It is fantastic to see how in our diocese of Ranchi, and even in the most distant villages of Jharkhand, people visit these chapels at every hour of the day... People of every age come: from teenagers and young adults to the elderly... The laity's love for the Eucharist is edifying." (Cardinal Telesphore Toppo, Archbishop of Ranchi India)
195. "I ask that the faithful pray to the Holy Spirit to lead us all to a greater appreciation of the presence of Jesus in our midst, for love of us, in the gift of the Eucharist." (Cardinal Sean Brady, Archbishop of Armagh and Primate of All Ireland)
196. "Adoration will heal our Church and thus our nation and thus our world...Adoration is more powerful for construction than nuclear bombs are for destruction." (Peter Kreeft, - Catholic theologian, apologist, professor, and author)
197. "In (Eucharistic) adoration we focus on Christ the center, and everything else then appears as it truly is: as a ray of light from that sun, the Son of God. We see the world in terms of Christ's coordinates instead of looking at Christ in terms of the world's coordinates. It is the great exercise in realism, since reality is Christocentric. Even this great mental benefit, or 'payoff,' must not be our primary motive, however. If we adored the Adorable One for the sake of something else, we would really be worshipping the 'something else' as the end and using God as the means. This would reverse the order of reality, treating the End as a means and the means as the end. God has left us clear instructions forbidding this: 'Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness, and then all these other things will be added unto you.' He commands us to adore Him for His sake, not for our sake; but He does this for our sake, not for His sake. His glory is to be our concern; our glory is His concern. That is what love is: exchange." (Peter Kreeft, - Catholic theologian, apologist, professor, and author)
198. "I want to strongly exhort our priests and people to consider encouraging and supporting the practice of praying before Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. It requires at times a sacrifice of time, of presence, but that sacrifice offers an added grace. It is an opportunity for us to follow the exhortation to die to ourselves so that we may live more fully in Jesus.” (Bishop Joseph A. Galante, Bishop of the Diocese of Camden, New Jersey)

199. “Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration has made my diocese safe from the violence that previously threatened to tear it apart. Both the priests and the laity credit Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration for protecting the diocese from the reign of communism and for bringing about peace and order. We put all our faith and trust in the omnipotent power of His love in the Blessed Sacrament and He did not fail us. The point I want to make is that Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament is not static, but dynamically active. He is the Good Shepherd. He does not take people away from the Sacraments, but rather, He is the one who brings them back. He does not make people weary, but refreshes them and makes them strong. He is the Lord of lords and King of kings. It is not dangerous to have Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration, but rather, it is dangerous not to have it, because He is the only one who can protect and restore, heal and unite us.” (Bishop Ruben T. Profugo, Bishop Emeritus of Lucena Philippines)
200. “This is a real presence which includes every dimension of who Jesus is: body and blood, human soul and divine person. The consecrated Eucharistic species are the Lord and therefore command our adoration. We do not adore ourselves, nor the ordained priest, nor the Bible, even though these are vehicles for Christ's spiritual presence; we do adore the Eucharist, this blessed sacrifice made really present sacramentally.” (Cardinal Francis George, Archbishop of Chicago)
201. “Our lives are transformed through frequent contact with the Lord present in the Blessed Sacrament. It is impossible to spend extended periods of time with Christ, adoring him, thanking him and uniting our wills to his, and not have him change our lives. One of the most encouraging developments in the prayer life of the archdiocese in recent years is the growth of Eucharistic Adoration in the parishes.” (Cardinal Francis George, Archbishop of Chicago)
202. “Adorers of the Eucharist in the United States are testifying to many graces received from adoration, including conversions, prayer answered, reconciliation in families, increases in priestly and religious vocations and other favors.” (Cardinal Francis George, Archbishop of Chicago)
203. “Objections to Eucharistic adoration come from a misreading of history and from erroneous sacramental theology. Because adoration of the Lord in the Eucharist arose in an era when people did not receive Holy Communion every Sunday, the practice of adoration is sometimes dismissed as an aberration, a substitute for receiving Communion. This is not a Catholic reading of history. The development of devotion to the Lord in his Eucharistic presence is not a “falling away” from some imagined pristine purity; it is evidence of a greater appreciation of who the Eucharist is... Likewise, adoration of the Lord in the Sacred Host is not in competition with the liturgical action of the Sacrifice of the Mass. To speak disdainfully, as some occasionally have, of “objectifying” Christ in the Host is to speak heretically. Pope Paul VI wrote: “The Catholic Church...offers to the sacrament of the Eucharist the cult of adoration, not only during Mass, but also outside of it, reserving the consecrated hosts with the utmost care, exposing them to the solemn veneration of the faithful, and carrying them in procession” (Mysterium fidei, 56). It seems strange to me that we should lift high the book of Gospels, which remains only a book, but be embarrassed to elevate the consecrated host, which is the Body of the Lord. It is a good thing to find a prominent and visible place in the church for the blessed oils and consecrated chrism which are used in the sacraments, but they remain oil and chrism; how strange it is that we should be fighting over whether or not people should be able to spot without too much inconvenience the place where the Eucharist is reserved. The Eucharist is a mystery of faith; to dismiss Eucharistic adoration is to weaken the faith." (Cardinal Francis George, Archbishop of Chicago)

204. "By linking our prayer through Mary to our adoration of Jesus in the most Blessed Sacrament, we have been given a new and spiritually rich avenue to Christ through His Mother." (Cardinal Roger Mahony, Archbishop Emeritus of Los Angeles)
205. "Each season of the liturgical year (Advent, Christmas, Lent, Easter and Ordinary Time) can be marked by a special opportunity for Eucharistic Adoration. The seasons of Advent and Lent are particularly appropriate times to bring the hopes and longings of the whole world and our own hearts before the Most Blessed Sacrament." (Cardinal Roger Mahony, Archbishop Emeritus of Los Angeles)
206. "Parishes throughout the Archdiocese would do well to make opportunities for Eucharistic Adoration available to parishioners on a regular basis." (Cardinal Roger Mahony, Archbishop Emeritus of Los Angeles)
207. Today's problems, such as low attendance at Mass and infrequent Confession, is nothing new and has been overcome in the past by the likes of St. John Vianney, Archbishop Fulton Sheen, and others according to Cardinal Dias. He states that "the secret of their resounding successes were the many hours (these Saints) spent in prayer before the Blessed Sacrament". The Cardinal also has proposed that bishops and priests all over the world should spend an hour each day in adoration, "interceding for themselves, for the faithful entrusted to their pastoral care and for the needs of the whole church." (Cardinal Ivan Dias, Prefect Emeritus of Congregation For The Evangelization Of Peoples)
208. "Devotion to the Eucharist leads one to a devotion to life and a devotion to life leads one to the Eucharist....We receive our strength for our labors for life from the Good News of Jesus Christ and from Holy Eucharist." (Cardinal Justin Rigali, Archbishop of Philadelphia)
209. "(Eucharistic Adoration outside of Mass) is an emerging sign of the times, confirmed in the experience of many bishops throughout the world. Bishops are very pleased about where this is going. It leads people back to the sacrament of reconciliation, to greater solidarity with each other, and to more active participation in the Mass." (Cardinal Justin Rigali, Archbishop of Philadelphia)
210. "Even high-schoolers are starting to pray before the Blessed Sacrament on their own. They're responding to a deep-felt need people have for union with God. In the Mass and in Eucharistic Adoration, we meet the merciful Love of God which passes through the Heart of Christ." (Cardinal Justin Rigali, Archbishop of Philadelphia)

211. "We are sent out from the Eucharist to contribute to the building up of the Body of Christ, and we return in Eucharistic adoration. The Eucharist is the center of our life because Jesus is the center of our life. So, he said, Eucharistic adoration is a powerful incentive to service to those in need. In the Eucharist, we live Christ's life and fulfill His words to worship the Father 'in spirit and in truth'." (Cardinal Justin Rigali, Archbishop of Philadelphia)
212. "It is urgent to undertake a renewal of nocturnal (Eucharistic) adoration that, while respecting its style, will allow for the integration of a scheme of prayer more adapted to the spiritual sensitivity of our time." (Archbishop Jose Guadalupe Martin Rabago, Archbishop of Leon, Guanajuato Mexico)
213. "(It is so important) to dispense in full the Word of God...especially to the younger generation and help to rediscover the true value of the liturgy, maintaining devotion to the Virgin Mary, the Patron Saints and Eucharistic Adoration in particular." (Cardinal Tarcisio Bertone, Secretary Of State of the Vatican)
214. In December 2007 Cardinal Claudio wrote to every Bishop in the world urging Eucharistic Adoration by the laypeople to pray for Priests. "We intend in a very particular way to entrust all priests to Mary, the Mother of the High and Eternal Priest, bringing about in the Church a movement of prayer, placing 24 hour continuous Eucharistic Adoration at the centre, so that a prayer of adoration, thanksgiving, praise, petition, and reparation, will be raised to God, incessantly and from every corner of the earth, with the primary intention of awakening a sufficient number of holy vocations to the priestly state." (Cardinal Claudio Hummes, Prefect Emeritus of the Congregation For The Clergy)
215. We can not live, we can not look the truth about ourselves without letting ourselves be looked at and generated by Christ in daily Eucharistic Adoration, and the 'Stabat' of Mary, 'Woman of the Eucharist', beneath the Cross of his Son, is the most significant example is given to us for contemplation and worship of the Divine Sacrifice." (Cardinal Claudio Hummes, Prefect Emeritus of the Congregation For The Clergy)
216. "Sometimes Eucharistic contemplation just means keeping Jesus company, being there under His gaze, giving Him the joy of contemplating us, too. Although we are but useless creatures and sinners, we are still the fruit of His passion for whom He gave His life." (Fr. Raniero Cantalamessa, Preacher To The Papal Household)
217. "To engage in Eucharistic contemplation means then, concretely, to establish a heart to heart contact with Jesus really present in the Host and, through him, to be raised to the Father in the Holy Spirit . . . Eucharistic contemplation is to look at one who is looking at me." (Fr. Raniero Cantalamessa, Preacher To The Papal Household)
218. "It is by staying still, in silence, and possibly for long periods, before Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament that we perceive what He wants from us, put aside our own plans to make way for His, and let God's light gradually penetrate the heart and heal it." (Fr. Raniero Cantalamessa, Preacher To The Papal Household)

219. "The Church plunges into the new millennium with renewed hope, adoring the Eucharistic Jesus, who is the light and life of humanity's pilgrimage... At the outset of this new millennium, we need a forthright and joyous proclamation of our faith in Jesus Christ, who enlightens this new phase of history: Prayer before Jesus Christ in the Eucharist." (Cardinal Juan Sandoval Iniguez, Archbishop of Diocese of Guadalajara Mexico)
220. "The abandonment of Eucharistic Adoration, or ignorance of its importance, is a grave loss that compromises the very identity of the Church." (Bishop Luca Brandolini, Bishop of Sora-Aquino-Pontecorvo, Italy)
221. "The Saints, being far advanced in the practice of love, were faithful and ardent adorers of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. Importantly, Eucharistic adoration has always been considered as the closest likeness we have to the eternal adoration which will make up our whole paradise. The difference lies only in the veil which hides the sight of that divine Reality of which faith gives us unwavering certainty." (Fr. Stefano Manelli, Minister General of the Franciscan Friars Of The Immaculate)
222. "Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament has been the fervent devotion of the Saints. Their adoration lasted hours and hours, sometimes whole days or nights. There 'at Jesus' feet' like Mary of Bethany (Luke 10:39), keeping Him fond and intimate company, absorbed in contemplating Him, they surrendered their hearts to a pure and fragrant offering of adoring love." (Fr. Stefano Manelli, Minister General of the Franciscan Friars Of The Immaculate)
223. "The devotion to the Eucharist, together with the devotion to the Blessed Mother, is the devotion of Paradise, because it is the devotion which the Angels and Saints of Heaven also have." (Fr. Stefano Manelli, Minister General of the Franciscan Friars Of The Immaculate)
224. "The synod (of Bishops in 2005)...underlined the importance of Eucharistic adoration outside Mass which has its fruits in the Mass itself because the Mass is the supreme act of adoration. But the sacrament does not finish after Mass. Christ is in the tabernacle to be brought to the sick, to receive our visits of adoration, praise, love, supplication. The synod fathers did not only talk about adoration - they did adoration, every day. Christ exposed in the monstrance in the chapel near the Synod Hall, one hour in the morning, one hour in the afternoon." (Cardinal Francis Arinze, Bishop of Velletri-Segni Italy)
225. "All time, all history belongs to God. Every instant should be spent in adoring and praising Him and rejoicing in His presence." (Cardinal Francis Arinze, Bishop of Velletri-Segni Italy)
226. "Gradually in the Church of the Latin Rite from the Middle Ages, Eucharistic devotion has developed in such forms as visits to the Most Blessed Sacrament, personal and group Holy Hour of Adoration, and Eucharistic Benediction, Procession and Congress. None of us should behave as if he or she had outgrown such manifestations of faith and had no need of them. I mention in particular Eucharistic adoration as encouraged by Pope John Paul II and by the Synod of Bishops of October 2005. Some parish priests have been surprised by their parishioners signing up for adoration at all hours of day or night. I was told about a Congregation of Sisters in Mexico which has kept up perpetual adoration for 130 years, including the years of persecution. Genuine Eucharistic faith never fails to manifest itself." (Cardinal Francis Arinze, Bishop of Velletri-Segni Italy)

227. "...I saw the chapels which exposed the Blessed Sacrament all day and sometimes night. Thank God for all that, because the hours we spend in front of the Most Holy Eucharist are invaluable." (Cardinal Francis Arinze, Bishop of Velletri-Segni Italy)
228. "It is certain that today there are many positive signs of faith and of love for the Eucharist, indeed, the noticeably better informed and more active participation of the faithful in the celebration of the Eucharist is a fruit of the liturgical reform introduced by the Second Vatican Council: more and more time is devoted daily to the adoration of the Eucharist; and a growing number of people take part in the Eucharistic procession for Corpus Christi which, every year, makes this adoration a moving public profession of love for Jesus in the Eucharist." (Cardinal Jose Saraiva Martins, Bishop of the Suburbicarian See Of Palestrina Italy)
229. "Just as Jesus stays in the sacrament after the (Eucharistic) celebration too, it is necessary for us to stay with him, (in Eucharistic) adoration that is prolonged through time." (Cardinal Jose Saraiva Martins, Bishop of the Suburbicarian See Of Palestrina Italy)
230. "I encourage you to... visit Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. Christ granted the request of his disciples on the road to Emmaus, and under the forms of bread and wine, his Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity really do 'remain with us'. Of course, the disciples were only echoing the similar request that Jesus had made in Garden of Gethsemane to Peter, James and John when he asked them to remain with him, to stay and pray with him for one hour (Mt 26:37-40). Now... we have the opportunity to do what the apostles failed to do that night, to remain with Him in Eucharistic Adoration..." (Archbishop Alfred Clifton Hughes, Archbishop Emeritus of Houston)
231. Bishop Piroird has commented that even non-Christians, such as the Muslims in his diocese of Constantine Algeria, have found comfort in Eucharist Adoration – "In the measure that they cannot participate frequently in the Eucharistic celebration, some give more time to Eucharistic Adoration; they discover the density of a Real Presence that gives strength to their daily lives." (Bishop Gabriel Piroird, Bishop Emeritus of Constantine Algeria)
232. "When we rekindle our Eucharistic amazement and devotion (such as Eucharistic Adoration) then our marriages in turn are rekindled. Vocations to the priesthood and religious life are rekindled. A missionary spirit and evangelization are rekindled... I see parents and religious educators really going the extra mile in their efforts to lead our young people to a life-changing understanding and lived experience of the Eucharist." (Bishop Michael Angelo Satarelli, Bishop of Wilmington Diocese)
233. "Perpetual Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is the solution to our problems of declining vocations." (Cardinal Ricardo J. Vidal, Archbishop of Cebu in the Philippines)

234. "If we are willing only to do what is ordinary then we can only expect God's ordinary blessings. Only when we are willing to do the extraordinary are we guaranteed of obtaining God's extraordinary blessings. Perpetual adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is absolutely the extraordinary effort that God is asking for today in order that He may bestow upon mankind His extraordinary blessings. When we are willing to do on earth what is done in heaven, i.e., adore God perpetually, then God will create a 'new heaven' and a 'new earth'." (Cardinal Ricardo J. Vidal, Archbishop of Cebu in the Philippines)
235. "In the prolonged silence of the Adoration young people have a better opportunity to have a personal relationship with Christ and God the father." (Cardinal Camillo Ruini, Cardinal Priest of St. Agnes Outside The Wall titular Church)
236. "Devotion to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament has a long and fruitful tradition in the Church. On many occasions I have urged that each parish have at least a weekly time set aside particularly for Eucharistic adoration. I repeat this urging with the request that time be made for adoration of Jesus in the Eucharist every day. Over twenty parishes have perpetual adoration and I hope many more will begin this beautiful devotion. If for good reason this cannot be achieved, I hope every parish will provide daily opportunities for parishioners, 'to spend time in spiritual converse, in silent adoration, in heartfelt love before Christ present in the Most Holy Sacrament'." (Archbishop Joseph Anthony Fiorenza, Archbishop Emeritus of Gavelston-Houston)
237. "If it were not for the Eucharist, if it were not for this marvelous manifestation of God's love, if it were not for this opportunity to place ourselves in the very real presence of God, if it were not for the sacrament that reminds us of His love, His suffering and His triumph, which indeed perpetuates for us His saving sacrifice on the cross, I am sure that I could never face the challenges of my life, my own weakness and sinfulness and my own need to reach out to the Living God." (Cardinal Theodore McCarrick, Archbishop Emeritus of Washington)
238. "How do we obtain the Spirit of Christ, who makes us witnesses of his gift, if we do not return to the frequent and regular practice of individual Confession, and if we do not return to the experienced and lived celebration of the Mass, prolonged in Eucharistic adoration, which must once more have a place and time in our daily schedule?" (Cardinal Dario Castrillon Hoyos, President Emeritus of the Pontifical Commission Ecclesia Dei)
239. "It is a time to renew our adoration of the one Lord, Jesus Christ, in the Eucharist. Jesus has loved us so much that every day, all day, he makes himself available in his Real Presence, under the appearance of bread and wine. Can you love anyone more totally than to give yourself completely to the beloved? Only God can do that, and we are his beloved." (Bishop Thomas V. Daily, Bishop Emeritus of the Brooklyn Diocese)
240. "I challenge you to adore Jesus Christ perpetually in the Eucharist...If you accept perpetual adoration, there will be a multitude of vocations...I think we have to be serious about the Eucharist and our faith...(Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration could be) the most important solitary program in this diocese now and in the future." (Bishop Thomas V. Daily, Bishop Emeritus of the Brooklyn Diocese)

241. "The Rosary, especially prayed in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament, is a powerful means of spiritual grace. In all of our efforts to promote the sanctity of human life, prayer is our first and strongest resource. May we rely upon the power of our Lord's presence in the Blessed Sacrament and the intercession of His Blessed Mother to guide and help us in fostering a greater respect for human life and an end to abortion in our society." (Bishop Thomas V. Daily, Bishop Emeritus of the Brooklyn Diocese)
242. "Jesus has singled you out and commissioned you to attract other people who will be as devoted to the Eucharist as you are, people who will be willing to spend quality time in the presence of Jesus. The more you spread devotion to the Eucharistic Presence, the more you get others to pray for the conversion of us priests, the more will the wounds in today's Church be healed. Pray for priests. Pray for an increase of vocations to the priesthood and religious life. You, the laity, have the power to save the Church!...What a mission he has entrusted to you! What a privilege that He has asked you to join with Him in saving the Church!" (Bishop Raymond E. Geodert, Retired Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of Chicago)
243. "(At you Holy Hour of Eucharistic Adoration) do you know how to adore? It is simple: like the simple peasant of Ars, of the parish of St. John Vianney who stayed a long time in front of the tabernacle, doing what? Nothing special - 'I look at Him and He looks at me.' You can try it: start to look and think that He is looking at you. When your gaze crosses, you are at the beginning of a new adventure in your life." (Cardinal Jozef Tomko, President Emeritus of International Eucharistic Congresses)
244. "The greatest thing in the world that you can do is to encourage others and yourself to participate in perpetual adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. It is the real presence of Jesus on earth. The blessings that come upon you and your family will be phenomenal." (Mother Angelica, Founder of the EWTN Catholic Television Network)
245. "Because Eucharistic Adoration is an intense encounter with Jesus Christ, many find that such extended periods of prayer make them somehow different, somehow better. People who pray regularly before the Blessed Sacrament become more tranquil, more patient, more charitable and more forgiving. Actually, they become more holy. No matter what attracts people to come to Eucharistic Adoration, many are learning that prayer before the Blessed Sacrament can and will transform them and make them more like Christ." (Cardinal Anthony J. Bevilacqua, 1923 to 2012)
246. "I just think the Lord is blessing us in this way (with so many vocations) for adoring him in the Eucharist. I believe that we are doing so well in this regard (vocations) because the Lord is thanking us in a way for (all of our Eucharistic Adoration)." (Archbishop John F. Donoghue, 1928 to 2011)
247. "God has given us the life and death and resurrection of His Son. Now we must respond by giving ourselves devotedly to His real presence." (Archbishop John F. Donoghue, 1928 to 2011)

248. "By His Eucharistic presence, Christ dwells in our midst. Out of love He has enriched the Church with His unceasing presence. As God in former days dwelt in the temple of Jerusalem, He now lives in our churches and chapels. He invites us to remain in close contact with Him. Through Eucharistic adoration we concentrate our attention on Him as we yield to the fascination of His invisible gaze. Opening our heart, we entrust all our petitions to Him." (Fr. Jean Galot, S.J., 1919 to 2008)
249. "Christ is present by his dynamic power and action in all the sacraments, but in the Eucharist, His presence is, in addition, substantial. For this reason, the Eucharist may be adored. It is the greatest of all sacraments." (Cardinal Avery Dulles, 1918 to 2008)
250. "Many of the laity in all parts of the world have asked their priests to re-establish Holy Hours, the Forty Hours devotion, First Friday adoration, and perpetual or night adoration. The faithful would like to see their priests in silent (and, I would say, willing) adoration before the Blessed Sacrament, for the priest who spends time in adoration celebrates Mass with more piety and with more edification of the faith of the people." (Cardinal Edouard Gagnon, 1918 to 2007)
251. "It is not true that the Council has invited priests to abandon the daily visit to the Blessed Sacrament. It invites them, rather, to 'prize daily conversation with Christ the Lord in visits of personal devotion to the most Holy Eucharist' (P.O., no. 18)." (Cardinal Edouard Gagnon, 1918 to 2007)
252. "Adorers are among those towards whom Saint Joseph tends to be partial. They can count on him first of all because they are seeking a master who will teach them how to offer worship to God and share his function of helper of the Universal Church as they kneel before the Blessed Sacrament." (Fr. Ronald Huot, 1910 to 2006)
253. "The purpose of exposition (of the Blessed Sacrament) is not only to awaken a sense of wonderment and adoration as we dwell on the reality of the presence of Christ before us. It also brings to mind the benefits that can be derived... it is often said today that through exposition we are exposed to the Blessed Sacrament in such a way as to receive the abundant fruits that come with the life-giving Presence of Christ given for the life of the world." (Fr. Ronald Huot, 1910 to 2006)
254. "If you want to have a true relation to God, you have to go down on your knees before God." (Cardinal Jan Pieter Schotte, 1928 to 2005)
255. "We pay the Blessed Sacrament the supreme homage of divine adoration and worship (latria), because He who is there present is the God of heaven and earth, the all-holy Word-made-flesh, our first beginning and our last end." (Fr. Richard Foley, S.J., ???? to 2003)
256. Eucharistic Adoration brings great consolation especially during times of extreme hardship. The Servant Of God, Cardinal Nyuyen Van Thuan, was imprisoned by the communists in Vietnam for 13 years. Under the cover of darkness, unbeknownst to his captors, he managed to say Mass every night for his fellow prisoners and even held Eucharistic Adoration. He stated: "At night, the prisoners took turns and spent time in adoration. The Blessed Sacrament helped tremendously. Even Buddhists and other non-Christians were converted. The strength of the love of Jesus is irresistible. The darkness of the prison turned into light, the seed germinated silently in the storm." (Servant Of God Cardinal Francis Xavier Nguyen Van Thuan, 1928 to 2002)

20th Century Saint's Eucharistic Adoration Quotes

257. "It is most heartening to learn that young men and women, in their late teens and twenties, are increasingly attracted to meditative prayer in the Presence of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. May all the faithful find in the Eucharist their source of strength and courage to imitate our Lady, totally open to his will in their daily lives. It is my hope that this devotion to Jesus in the Eucharist will spread to more and more parishes and dioceses across our nation." (Cardinal John O'Connor, 1920 to 2000)

That sentence is the talisman of the highest sanctity." (Servant Of God Fr. John Hardon, S.J.)

266. "For Jesus to 'work miracles' is available in our day on one condition. That we come to him in Adoration and confidently beg him to give us the graces that we so desperately need." (Servant Of God Fr. John Hardon, S.J.)

268. "There is no greater profession of faith possible for a human being to make here on earth than during prayer before the Holy Eucharist; so we ask, why should prayer before Christ in the Blessed Sacrament be so powerful in obtaining miracles of conversion-- is because it is prayer rising from faith in the cardinal mystery of Christianity." (Servant Of God Fr. John Hardon, S.J.)
269. "Jesus, my God, I adore You, here present in the Blessed Sacrament of the altar, where You wait day and night to be our comfort while we await Your unveiled presence in heaven." (Cardinal John J. Carberry, 1904 to 1998)

286. "Imagine for a moment that we are living in Jesus' time and He has invited us to visit with Him and spend some quiet time getting to know Him better. Being aware who He was, we would be humbled and honored by such an invitation. The good news is that Jesus is here with us TODAY - body, blood, soul and divinity - in the Holy Eucharist. Although Jesus comes to us under the appearance of bread and wine, His presence is as real to us NOW as He was flesh-and-blood-real to His disciples when he walked this earth. He can perform miracles, heal us, teach us, and love us. We can talk to Him and He can speak to us through His Word and through the Holy Spirit who lives in us through our baptism and confirmation." (Blessed Mother Teresa)
287. "Jesus has made Himself the Bread of Life to give us life. Night and day, He is there. If you really want to grow in love, come back to the Eucharist, come back to that Adoration." (Blessed Mother Teresa)
288. "Each time we look upon Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, He raises us up into deeper union with Himself, opens up the floodgates of His merciful love to the whole world, and brings us closer to the day of His final victory "where every knee will bend and proclaim Jesus Christ as Lord". 'The reign of God is already in your midst.' The coming of Jesus to us in the Eucharist is assurance of His promise of final victory: 'Behold I come to make all things new.'." (Blessed Mother Teresa)
289. "I am seeking to live my ideal: to be a missionary-contemplative so as to announce Christ in a credible manner. I give much time to prayer before the Eucharist, at least five hours a day, as did the first PIME (Pontifical Institute for the Foreign Missions) missionaries. And I am experiencing, given that Jesus wants to increase and wants me to decrease, that prayer is becoming continual, by day, and when I wake up, by night." (Servant Of God Padre Leopoldo Pastori, 1939 to 1996)

290. "Love, as the true essence of holiness, grows ever deeper in us through the frequent recollection of and visits to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament." (Bishop William Giaquinta, 1914 to 1994)
291. "Participation in Eucharistic Adoration, including Nocturnal Adoration, is a manifestation of our sacrificial love." (Bishop William Giaquinta, 1914 to 1994)
292. "Our desire to communicate with God comes from the need we feel to imitate Christ. Imitation of Christ is learned in the silence of prayer and through the quiet work of grace in us." (Bishop William Giaquinta, 1914 to 1994)
293. Do we find it important enough in our daily lives to signup to cover a specific weekly hour of Eucharistic Adoration? King Baudouin of Belgium did. Despite his busy schedule he would sit in Eucharistic Adoration for 3 hours every day. He commented that sitting before the Blessed Sacrament was like sitting in the sun; nothing is required of you but to come out of the shade, and you only feel the strength of its effects later. (King Baudouin of Belgium, 1930 to 1993)

Venerable Archbishop Fulton Sheen (1895 - 1979)

Archbishop Fulton Sheen was one of the first Radio and TV evangelists of our times and watched by millions. During his Priesthood he said a Holy Hour of Adoration everyday before our beloved Lord. In his autobiography he commented that this was one of the things that kept him so faithful to Jesus and the Church throughout his Priesthood.

294. "A Holy Hour is not a devotion; it is a sharing in the work of redemption." (Venerable Archbishop Fulton Sheen)
295. "The only time our Lord asked the Apostles for anything was the night He went into agony. Not for activity did He plead but for an Hour of companionship." (Venerable Archbishop Fulton Sheen)
296. "During a Holy Hour we grow more and more into His likeness." (Venerable Archbishop Fulton Sheen)
297. "A Holy Hour becomes a magister and teacher. Theological insights are gained not only from the covers of a treatise, but from two knees on a prie-dieu before the Blessed Sacrament." (Venerable Archbishop Fulton Sheen)
298. "A Holy Hour of Adoration in our modern rat race is necessary for authentic prayer." (Venerable Archbishop Fulton Sheen)
299. "The best time to make a holy hour is in the morning, early, before the day sets traps for us." (Venerable Archbishop Fulton Sheen)

300. "By being faithful to our Holy Hour, and letting nothing interfere with it, we use it as the sign and symbol of our victimhood." (Venerable Archbishop Fulton Sheen)
301. "We are not called to great penances...but the Holy Hour is a sacrifice in union with Christ." (Venerable Archbishop Fulton Sheen)
302. "Neither theological knowledge nor social action alone is enough to keep us in love with Christ unless both are preceded by a personal encounter with Him." (Venerable Archbishop Fulton Sheen)
303. "The Holy Hour becomes like an oxygen tank to revive the breath of the Holy Spirit in the midst of the foul and fetid atmosphere of the world." (Venerable Archbishop Fulton Sheen)
304. "The most brilliant ideas come from meeting God face to face (at adoration). The Holy Spirit that presided at the Incarnation is the best atmosphere for illumination." (Venerable Archbishop Fulton Sheen)
305. "The purpose of the Holy Hour is to encourage deep personal encounter with Christ. The holy and glorious God is constantly inviting us to come to Him, to hold converse with Him, to ask for such things as we need and to experience what a blessing there is in fellowship with Him." (Venerable Archbishop Fulton Sheen)
306. "The secret (to my preaching) is that I have never in fifty-five years missed spending an hour in the presence of our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. That's where the power comes from. That's where sermons are born. That's where every good thought is conceived." (Venerable Archbishop Fulton Sheen)
307. "God gave us two weapons: knees and hands. Knees--to spend an hour a day in reparation for sins." (Venerable Archbishop Fulton Sheen)
308. "St. Paul tells us that faith comes from listening. In a daily Holy Hour, we wait for Him to speak—and He does!" (Venerable Archbishop Fulton Sheen)
309. "Each time you approach the Blessed Sacrament remember that Jesus has been waiting for you for twenty centuries for this personal visit from you." (St. Joseph Escriva, 1902 to 1975)
310. "If you don't keep in touch with Christ in prayer and in the bread, how can you make Him known to others?" (St. Joseph Escriva, 1902 to 1975)
311. "Out of the darkness of my life, so much frustrated, I put before you the one great thing to love on earth: the Blessed Sacrament... There you will find romance, glory, honour, fidelity, and the true way of all your loves upon earth, and more than that: Death: by the divine paradox, that which ends life, and demands the complete surrender of all, and yet by the taste (or foretaste) of which alone can what you what you seek in your earthly relationships (love, faithfulness, joy) be maintained, or take on the complexity of reality, of eternal endurance, which every man's heart desires." (John Ronald Reuel Tolkien, 1892 to 1973)

312. "The Hour of Adoration prepares one for Holy Mass and Holy Communion. Frequent encounters and familiar conversation with Jesus produce friendship, resemblance, and identity of thought, of feeling and of willing with Jesus". (Blessed James Alberione, 1844 to 1971)
313. "Your role before the tabernacle [is to be]: living lamps before Jesus in the Eucharist; handmaids of honor of the tabernacle and of its Divine Dweller; angels of the Eucharist who receive and who give; souls who hunger and thirst for the bread of the Eucharist and the water of His grace; hearts that share with their Spouse in the Eucharist His desires, His goals, His self-sacrifice for all; the intimate confidantes of Jesus in the Host, listening to His every word of life and meditating on it in your heart, as Mary did." (Blessed James Alberione, 1844 to 1971)

St. Padre Pio (1887 - 1968)

St. Padre Pio was a Mystic and Stigmatic. He would spend as much time in adoration as possible. When an Open Holy Hour occurs at our local adoration program we should not wonder who is going to cover it but imitate St. Pio. Jesus is not asking the person to the right or left of us, the person with more time on their hands, or the person that is holier than us. He is asking us.

314. "A thousand years of enjoying human glory is not worth even an hour spent in sweetly communing with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament." (St. Padre Pio)
315. "When you want to find me, come near the tabernacle." Padre Pio considered adoration so important that this was the directions he gave to his fellow friars if they went looking for him. (St. Padre Pio)
- 316. "I weep and mourn at the feet of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament for often I'm consoled." (St. Padre Pio)
317. "We must always have courage, and if some spiritual languor comes upon us, let us run to the feet of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, and let us place ourselves in the midst of the heavenly perfumes, and we will undoubtedly regain our strength." (St. Padre Pio)
318. "Kneel down and render the tribute of your presence and devotion to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. Confide all your needs to him, along with those of others. Speak to him with filial abandonment, give free rein to your heart, and give him complete freedom to work in you as he thinks best." (St. Padre Pio)

319. "By means of the angels, Jesus calls the poor and simple shepherds, in order to manifest Himself to them. He calls the learned men by means of their science. And all of them, moved by His inner grace, hasten to adore Him. He calls all of us by divine inspiration, and communicates with us by means of His grace. How many times has he invited us, too? And how readily have we responded? My God, I blush and become embarrassed when I have to answer such a question." (St. Padre Pio)
320. St. Padre Pio was so happy during his many hours of Eucharistic Adoration that he wrote: "When I am close to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, I feel as if my heart is bursting out of my chest." (St. Padre Pio)
321. "When Mass ended I remained with Jesus to render Him thanks. My thirst and hunger do not diminish after I have received Him in the Blessed Sacrament, but rather, increase steadily. Oh, how sweet was the conversation I held with Paradise this morning. The Heart of Jesus and my own, if you will pardon my expression, fused. They were no longer two hearts beating but only one. My heart disappeared as if it were a drop in the ocean." (St. Padre Pio)
322. Can we sacrifice one early morning hour a week to keep our beloved Lord company in Eucharistic Adoration? Many of the great Saints did this, such as Blessed Cardoza, who identified with the Blessed Virgin's love for the Eucharist and spent long hours at night in adoration. (Blessed Maria Cardoza, 1875 to 1967)
323. "In the house of prayer the most Holy Eucharist is celebrated and preserved. There the faithful gather, and find help and comfort through venerating the presence of the Son of God our Savior, offered us on the sacrificial altar. This house must be well kept and suitable for prayer and sacred action. There, priests and the faithful are called to respond with grateful hearts to the gift of Him who through His humanity constantly pours divine life into the members of His Body...The spiritual life, however, is not limited solely to participation in the liturgy. The Christian is indeed called to pray with his brethren, but he must also enter into his chamber to pray to the Father in secret; yet more, according to the teaching of the Apostle, he should pray without ceasing...Popular devotions of the Christian people are to be highly commended, provided they accord with the laws and norms of the Church, above all when they are ordered by the Apostolic See." (Second Vatican Council, 1962 to 1965)
324. "As a help towards faithful fulfillment of their ministry, priests should love to talk daily with Christ, the Lord, in their visit to the most Blessed Sacrament, and in their personal devotion to it... By this spirit they themselves, and with them the people entrusted in their care, will unite themselves with Christ, the Mediator of the New Testament, and be able to, as adopted sons, cry 'Abba! Father!'" (Rom 8:15)." (Second Vatican Council, 1962 to 1965)

325. "The devotion which leads the faithful to visit the Blessed Sacrament draws them into an ever deeper participation of the Paschal Mystery. It leads them to respond gratefully to the gift of him who through his humanity constantly pours divine life into the members of his body. Dwelling with Christ our Lord, they enjoy his intimate friendship and pour out their hearts before him for themselves and for their dear ones, and pray for the peace and salvation of the world. They offer their entire lives with Christ to the Father in the Holy Spirit, and receive in this wonderful exchange an increase in faith, hope and charity. Thus they nourish those right dispositions which enable them with all true devotion to celebrate the memorial of the Lord and to receive frequently the bread given to us by the Father." (Second Vatican Council, 1962 to 1965)
326. Do we love Jesus enough to commit to spending one special specific hour with him each week? St. Catanoso had a great devotion and love for the Eucharist. He often spent hours or entire days in prayer before the Tabernacle, and in his parish and beyond he promoted Eucharistic Adoration. He had a great devotion to the Holy Face of Jesus and would often say: "If we wish to adore the real Face of Jesus, we can find it in the divine Eucharist where, with the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ, the Face of our Lord is hidden under the white veil of the Host." (St. Gaetano Catanoso, 1879 to 1963)
327. "Smile at Jesus who you approach at Mass, in Holy Communion and in Eucharistic Adoration." (St. Gianna Borella Molla, 1922 to 1962)
328. "Lord, You will reign in the Host; You will conquer from Your radiating tabernacle; You will dominate the earth by the lovable omnipotence of the Holy Eucharist." (Fr. Mateo Crawley-Boevey, 1875 to 1960)
329. Do we consider Eucharistic Adoration important enough in our lives to signup for a specific hour at our local Eucharistic Adoration program? Our Saints lives were centered on the Mass and adoration. St. Maria, the first Mexican woman to be canonized, had a great devotion to the Eucharist, which invigorated her for her apostolate to the poor and sick in Mexico. At her canonization Pope John Paul II said: "Her spirituality was marked by an exceptional Eucharistic piety, since it is clear that an excellent way to union with the Lord is to seek Him, to adore Him, to love Him in the most holy mystery of his real presence in the Sacrament of the Altar." (St. Maria De Jesus Sacramentado, 1868 to 1959)
330. Msgr. Ronald Knox once delivered a sermon reflecting on the importance of Eucharistic Adoration entitled 'The Window in the Wall'. The 'window' is the Sacred Host in the monstrance. It is the window between two worlds. As a window belongs at once to both the room inside and to the open air outside, so His Eucharistic Body belongs at once to both time and eternity. Just as natural light comes thru a window so to does supernatural light come thru the Monstrance to illuminate our souls in Eucharistic Adoration. (Monsignor Ronald Knox, 1888 to 1957)
331. "Prayer is our first duty in this life and to plead lack of time for it is an insult to God." (Monsignor Ronald Knox, 1888 to 1957)
332. Jesus speaking to Blessed Alexandrina - "Keep Me company in the Blessed Sacrament. I remain in the tabernacle night and day, waiting to give My love and grace to all who would visit Me. But so few come. I am so abandoned, so lonely, so offended... Many men do not believe that I live in the tabernacle. They curse Me. Others believe, but do not love Me and do not visit Me; they live as if I were not there." (Blessed Alexandrina da Costa, 1904 to 1955)

333. Even though Blessed Alexandria was bed ridden for most of her life her devotion and love of the Eucharist was so strong that she often adored our Eucharistic Lord from her bed: "O my Jesus, I adore thee everywhere thou dwellest in the Blessed Sacrament. Where thou art despised, I stand by thee. I love thee for those who do not love. I make amends for those who offend thee. Come into my heart." (Blessed Alexandrina da Costa, 1904 to 1955)
334. "My sweetest Joy is to be in the presence of Jesus in the holy Sacrament. I beg that when obliged to withdraw in body, I may leave my heart before the holy Sacrament. How I would miss Our Lord if He were to be away from me by His presence in the Blessed Sacrament." (St. Katherine Drexel, 1858 to 1955)
335. "I adore You, my Eucharistic God. You are there exposed in the ostensorium [monstrance]. The rays are the rays of Your love for me, for each individual soul. If it wasn't for Your love, I would be in hell. I return You thanksgiving through Mary, through St. Joseph, through all the Apostles, Martyrs, Virgins and Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament in heaven. And lastly, I thank You through the sacred host on all the altars throughout the world." (St. Katherine Drexel, 1858 to 1955)
336. "Before all other things, and even above all things, O Venerable Brothers, we are essentially adorers (of the most Blessed Sacrament). 'This is how one should regard us, as ministers of Christ' (1 Cor 4:1). After that we must also be ministers of the people..." (Blessed Alfredo Ildefonso Schuster, 1880 to 1954)
337. "The formation received in the Society of Jesus, strengthened by prayer and adoration of the Eucharist, allowed him to be won over by Christ, being a true contemplative in action. In love and in the total gift of self to God's will, he found strength for the apostolate...He founded El Hogar de Cristo for the most needy and the homeless, offering them a family atmosphere full of human warmth." (Pope Benedict XVI, Oct. 15 2006 homily during St. Alberto canonization) (St. Alberto Hurtado Cruchaga, 1901 to 1952)
338. Blessed Maria's deep devotion to the Blessed Sacrament dominated her entire spiritual life, so much so that she considered it a heavy and painful cross if ever deprived of daily Holy Communion. She stayed in adoration of the Blessed Sacrament as often and as long as she could especially on Thursdays from 11 to Midnight. "I ask my Jesus (that I can) be a guardian of all the tabernacles of the world, until the end of time." (Blessed Maria Candida Of The Eucharist, 1884 to 1949)
339. St. Josephine spent hours in Eucharistic Adoration and, when one Sister asked if it tired her, she said, "Not at all! I have been having a wonderful time with Him. He has waited so long for me." (St. Josephine Bakhita, 1869 to 1947)
340. "What a new world opens up to me contemplating Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament... it awakens holy ideas in me, a burning and consuming flame, but one that makes me so happy!" (Blessed Alberto Marvelli, 1918 to 1946)

341. Blessed Teresa Bracco developed a great love for the Blessed Sacrament from an early age. Besides going to daily Mass she was often found in her local Church, in Eucharist Adoration before the Tabernacle, immobile and almost ecstatic adoring our beloved Lord. While most of us will not attain that height of contemplation we can still follow Blessed Teresa's example and volunteer to cover at least one hour of Eucharistic Adoration a week at our local Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration program. (Blessed Teresa Bracco, 1924 to 1944)
342. "To make room in our life for the Eucharistic Lord, so that He can change our life into His, is that asking too much?" (Saint Teresa Benedicta of the Cross, 1891 to 1942)
343. "The Lord is present in the tabernacle in his divinity and in his humanity. He is not present for his own sake but for ours: it is his delight to be with the 'children of men.' He knows, too, that, being what we are, we need his personal nearness. In consequence, every thoughtful and sensitive person will feel attracted and will be there as often and as long as possible. And the practice of the Church, which has instituted perpetual adoration, is just as clear." (Saint Teresa Benedicta of the Cross, 1891 to 1942)
344. "A woman's life must be a Eucharistic life. Only in daily, confidential relationship with the Lord in the tabernacle can one forget self, become free of all one's wishes and pretensions, and have a heart open to all the needs and wants of others." (Saint Teresa Benedicta of the Cross, 1891 to 1942)
345. "My aim is to institute Perpetual (Eucharistic) Adoration, for this is the most important activity." (St. Maximilian Kolbe, 1894 to 1941)
346. "God dwells in our midst in the Blessed Sacrament of the altar." (St. Maximilian Kolbe, 1894 to 1941)
347. "Let us not forget to visit . . . Jesus. Let us tell Him we love Him. We might ask Him what He wants of us, what are His wishes. Sometimes we might ask Jesus something for ourselves and something for others. One can speak to Jesus as brother to brother, as friend to friend, more so, since it often happens that men do not understand us, whereas Jesus understands each of us always." (St. Maximilian Kolbe, 1894 to 1941)

St. Sister Faustina (1905 - 1938)

Known as the "Apostle of Mercy" she received revelations from our Lord Jesus about His "Divine Mercy". Here are some of her quotes, and some of the messages from the Lord Jesus to her, about the importance of Eucharistic Adoration in our lives:

348. "A Holy Hour before the Most Blessed Sacrament so pleases the Heart of Jesus, that every man, woman and child on earth receives a new effect from God's goodness and love, all because of a single hour of adoration in His Presence."
(St. Sister Faustina)
349. Jesus speaking to St. Faustina - 'Come to Me, all of you...Behold, for you I have established a throne of mercy on earth and from this throne I desire to enter into your heart. I am not surrounded by a retinue of guards. You can come to me at any moment, at any time; I want to speak to you and I desire to grant you grace.'. (St. Sister Faustina)
350. Jesus speaking to St. Faustina - 'I desire that (Eucharistic) Adoration take place for the intention of imploring Mercy for the world'. (St. Sister Faustina)
351. Jesus speaking to St. Faustina - 'I remind you, My daughter, that as often as you hear the clock strike the third hour (in the afternoon), immerse yourself completely in My mercy, adoring and glorifying it; invoke its omnipotence for the whole world, and particularly for poor sinners...adore in the Most Blessed Sacrament My Heart, which is full of mercy.' (St. Sister Faustina)
352. "Not only are we to receive and adore the Eucharist, we must live the Eucharist. We are to let the rays of mercy from the monstrance pass through us and go out through all the world." (St. Sister Faustina)
353. "We are to be icons of mercy, radiating love and mercy to others. There is no greater way to energize ourselves to this task than by spending time in the Presence of the Source of Love and Mercy, Our Lord in the Most Holy Eucharist."
(St. Sister Faustina)
354. Jesus revealed to St. Faustina at Adoration that "beneath these rays (from the Eucharist) a heart will be warmed even if it were like a block of ice; or hard as rock..". (St. Sister Faustina)
355. "I will not allow myself to be so absorbed in the whirlwind of work as to forget about God. I will spend all my free moments at the feet of the Master hidden in the Blessed Sacrament. He has been tutoring me from my most tender years."
(St. Sister Faustina)
356. Jesus speaking to St. Faustina - 'My Heart overflows with great mercy for souls, and especially for poor sinners ... for them I dwell in the tabernacle as King of Mercy.' (St. Sister Faustina)
357. "If we were to sit for an hour a few feet away from a radioactive element, how much would that change effect us? The Lord is infinitely more powerful than this and if we go to Him seeking grace and mercy, how much more can we hope to be changed?" (St. Sister Faustina)
358. When St. Faustina was praying before Jesus in the Holy Eucharist He showed her a vision. Each time a person entered the chapel and visited Jesus exposed in a monstrance, she saw His Divine Rays of Love and Mercy burst forth and encircle the world and everyone in it with graces and blessings! Through Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration Jesus unleashes His rays of healing upon our families, the whole world and us. (St. Sister Faustina)

359. Jesus speaking to St. Faustina – '(Daily) adore in the Most Blessed Sacrament My Heart, which is full of mercy'. (St. Sister Faustina)
360. "I spend every free moment at the feet of the hidden God. He is my Master; I ask Him about everything; I speak to Him about everything. Here I obtain strength and light." (St. Sister Faustina)
361. Consider signing up to cover a nighttime (early Morning) Eucharistic Adoration hour. The Saints considered the more difficult hours of their Eucharistic Adoration to be the most rewarding. St. Pedro Lucero spent long hours in Eucharistic Adoration and was a great promoter of nocturnal adorations at the parishes he was pastor of. (St. Pedro de Jesus Maldonado, 1892 to 1937)
362. "Praying before the Blessed Sacrament I find strength, courage, light and all the love I need to help those entrusted to me on the way of salvation." (Blessed Victoria Diez Bustos De Molino, 1862 to 1937)
363. "O Jesus of the Eucharist! O consecrated Host! O envied Monstrance! O blessed Ciborium, beloved of my heart! The Tabernacle is my Treasure, and, far or near, my eyes never lose sight of it, for it contains the God of Love." (Venerable Concepcion Cabrera de Armida, 1862 to 1937)
364. Jesus speaking to Venerable Concepcion – "I want souls who are dedicated with fervor, with determination and without looking for rest, to plead day and night (before the Blessed Sacrament) for my priests." (Venerable Concepcion Cabrera de Armida, 1862 to 1937)
365. All the Saints knew the importance of Eucharistic Adoration. The Eucharist is where grace and healing comes from. St. Andre Bessette knew this as he would often spend long nights in adoration of our beloved Lord. From this he consoled and healed thousands of people while remaining a simple doorkeeper as a Brother for the Congregation Of The Cross. Let us imitate him and sign up for at least a weekly Holy Hour of adoration at our local Eucharistic Adoration program. (St. Andre Bessette, 1845 to 1937)
366. Many of our Saints have said that Eucharistic Adoration helps us overcome fears and prepares us for tasks we thought would be impossible of us. Blessed Mary Of The Angels was no exception as she would spend long hours in adoration before our beloved Lord. She prepared herself well in this way to later accept martyrdom according to Pope Benedict XVI. (Blessed Mary Of The Angels Ginard Marti, 1894 to 1936)
367. "May we be worthy of these blessings, may we understand the responsibility which comes to us all, both clergy and laity of every degree, as a result of the favour bestowed upon us in being allowed to proclaim so gloriously and so openly our adoration of the Blessed Sacrament..." (Cardinal Francis Alphonsus Bourne, 1861 to 1935)

368. "Under the shadow of Tyburn (England) itself, on the very spot where our martyrs mounted the ladder that reached to Heaven, the Mass is not only said, but the most Blessed Sacrament is adored perpetually." (Cardinal Francis Alphonsus Bourne, 1861 to 1935)

Blessed Dina Belanger (1897 - 1929)

During the course of her life as a Nun, her devotion to the Blessed Sacrament transformed her into a woman of infectious joy. It was revealed to her, thru revelations from the Lord Himself, the power of a Holy Hour before the Blessed Sacrament. Here are some of her quotes, and some of the messages from the Lord Jesus to her, about the importance of Eucharistic Adoration in our lives:

369. One day before her Holy Hour, Jesus showed Blessed Dina Belanger a multitude of souls on the precipice of hell. After her Holy Hour, Jesus showed the same souls in the hands of God. He told her that through Holy Hours of prayer a multitude of souls go to Heaven who otherwise would have gone to hell as one person can make up for what is lacking in the lives of others by winning precious efficacious graces for their salvation. (Blessed Dina Belanger)
370. "If souls but understood the Treasure they possess in the Divine Eucharist...the Churches would overflow with adorers consumed with love for the Divine prisoner no less by night than by day." (Blessed Dina Belanger)
371. Jesus said to Bl. Dina Belanger - "My Heart overflows with graces for souls. Lead them to my Eucharist Heart." (Blessed Dina Belanger)
372. The Saints knew that the source of strength for their ministries were the Mass and Eucharistic Adoration. This was especially true of St. Rubio who found intense prayer before our Eucharistic Lord essential before going out to minister to the poor of Madrid. He encouraged Eucharistic Adoration as a daily form of our prayer life and wrote: "Are you truly making an effort to adore God? In this Sacred Host lies the whole of His omnipotence, all His wisdom, the perfect goodness of Jesus Christ, since therein rests His living heart as it is also in heaven. When we adore in this way, we adore in spirit and in truth." (St. Jose Maria Rubio S.J., 1864 to 1929)
373. "Jesus will grant the petitions of the Faithful in His Eucharistic Presence sooner than in any other place. The Saints realized this, and in all their trials and sufferings they hastened to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament.” (Servant of God Fr. Lukas Etlin, O.S.B., 1864 to 1927)

374. Many of our Saints have said that Eucharistic Adoration helps us overcome fears and prepares us for tasks we thought would be impossible of us. Blessed Jose Gomez was no exception as he would spend long hours in adoration before our beloved Lord. This prepared him to accept martyrdom later in his life. (Blessed Jose Gomez Dionisio Luis Padilla Gomez, 1899 to 1927)
375. All of Blessed Pier's actions began with the contemplation of Jesus. He felt a strong constant urge to be near the Blessed Sacrament and would spend the whole night in adoration when it was offered. (Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati, 1901 to 1925)
376. “When you are totally consumed by the Eucharistic fire, then you will be able more consciously to thank God, who has called you to become part of His family. Then you will enjoy the peace that those who are happy in this world have never experienced, because true happiness, oh young people, does not consist in the pleasures of this world, or in earthly things, but in peace of conscience, which we only have if we are pure of heart and mind.” (Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati, 1901 to 1925)
377. “How can anyone be lonely, with Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament?” (Venerable Matt Talbot, 1856 to 1925)
378. Blessed Edward knew he needed a great deal of strength for his priesthood and he found it in his many hours in Eucharistic adoration. In his intimate hours of adoration he would sometimes say to Jesus “Oh Jesus, how little men love you! At least the two of us love each other.” He would often console young people to stay close to our Eucharistic Lord. (Blessed Edward Poppe, 1890 to 1924)
379. “Oftentimes, I just stay there, simply seated (in Eucharistic Adoration), receiving food. This calm unconscious repose does me good. I am nourished, my strength returns.” (Blessed Edward Poppe, 1890 to 1924)
380. “The hour of (Eucharistic) adoration proclaims emphatically and practically a central doctrine of the Catholic Faith. It gives prominence to those elementary acts of worship, which all must recognize as pre-eminently due to God under the veils of the Most Holy Sacrament: Adoration of His majesty; Thanksgiving for His unbounded goodness; Separation for the perverse willfulness of men; Supplication for all human needs.” (Fr. Henry Parkinson (Msgr.), 1852 to 1924)
381. Jesus conveyed to Servant of God Sr. Menendez, through many messages, His loneliness in the Blessed Sacrament and the importance of Eucharistic Adoration to console Him – “Contemplate me in the prison (during my Passion) where I spent the greater part of the night...Compare the prison with the Tabernacle...In the prison I endured cold, sleeplessness, hunger and thirst, pain, shame, solitude, and desertion. And there passed before My mind's eye all the tabernacles where in the course of ages I should lack the shelter of love...And how often should I wait for this or that other soul to visit Me in the Blessed Sacrament and receive Me into his heart...how many nights should I spend longing for his coming...but he would let business or carelessness or anxiety for his health get the better of him...and he would not come! Gaze steadfastly upon Him during that night of pain and see that sorrow continued in the loneliness of countless tabernacles and the coldness of many hearts. Comfort Me in My sorrow by keeping Me faithful company..." (Servant of God Sister Josefa Menendez, 1890 to 1923)

382. "St Jozef Bilczewski was a man of prayer. The Holy Mass, the Liturgy of the Hours, meditation, the Rosary and other pious practices formed part of his daily life. A particularly long time was dedicated to Eucharistic adoration... The deep knowledge of theology, faith and Eucharistic devotion of Jozef Bilczewski made him an example for priests and a witness for all the faithful". (Pope Benedict XVI, Oct. 15 2006 homily during St. Jozef canonization) (St Jozef Bilczewski, 1860 to 1923)
383. "Wouldn't it indeed be a failure of respect to neglect the divine Guest who awaits us in the tabernacle? He dwells there, really present, He who was present in the crib, at Nazareth, upon the mountains of Judea, at the Last Supper, upon the cross. He is there, the same Christ who healed the lepers, stilled the tempest, and promised to the good thief a place in His kingdom. We find there our Savior, our Friend, our elder Brother, in the fullness of His almighty power, in the ever-fruitful virtue of His mysteries, the infinite superabundance of His merits, and the ineffable mercy of His love," (Blessed Columba Marmion, 1858 to 1923)
384. "Once you feel the attraction to remain in the silence of adoration in God's presence, you must give yourself entirely to the Holy Spirit and remain there in pure faith. If God gives you no feeling, no sentiment, no distinct thought, just be there before Him in silent love. During such moments He operates insensibly in the soul and does more for her perfection than she could in a lifetime by her own thoughts." (Blessed Columba Marmion, 1858 to 1923)
385. Most all of the Saints found the strength for their ministries from Eucharistic Adoration. St. Smaldone was no different. He was a "priest with a great heart nourished continuously on prayer and Eucharistic Adoration" according to Pope Benedict XVI upon canonizing him. He went on to found the "Eucharistic League Of Priest Adorers" and a "Eucharistic League For Women Adorers", while also having a great apostolate for the deaf. (St. Filippo Smaldone, 1848 to 1923)
386. Can we spare but one hour a week and commit to covering a special specific hour with Jesus? Many Saints thought Eucharist Adoration so important that they would go out of their way to adore our beloved Lord several times a day. Blessed Maria would make thirty visits a day to the Blessed Sacrament at one point in her life. (Blessed Maria Fortunata Viti, 1827 to 1922)
387. "I abyss myself in His magnificence and His wisdom but when I ponder His goodness, my heart can say nothing - I can only Adore." (St. Teresa Of Jesus Of The Andes, 1900 to 1920)
388. "St Zygmunt Gorazdowski also became famous for his devotion founded on the celebration and adoration of the Eucharist. Living Christ's offering urged him toward the sick, the poor and the needy... In founding the Association of Priests, the Congregation of the Sisters of St Joseph and many other charitable institutions, Zygmunt Gorazdowski always allowed himself to be guided by the spirit of communion, fully revealed in the Eucharist." (Pope Benedict XVI, Oct. 15 2006 homily during St. Zygmunt canonization) (St Zygmunt Gorazdowski, 1845 to 1920)

389. The Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to 4 children six different times, at Fatima, to place devotion to the Immaculate Heart of Mary alongside the well-established devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Among the many messages and prayers she conveyed to the children was the importance of adoration of the Most Blessed Sacrament. She requested the following prayer to be said often: "Oh, Holy Trinity, we adore You. My God, my God, I love You in the Blessed Sacrament." (Our Lady of Fatima, May 13 to October 13 1917)
390. "Do nothing without consulting Him in the Tabernacle. But then act fearlessly, if you see it is for His honor and glory, never minding what others may think or say. Peace and calm in your soul, prayer ever on your lips, and a big love in your heart for Him and His interests, will carry you very far." (Fr. William Doyle, 1873 to 1917)
391. "Real devotion to the Blessed Sacrament is only to be gained by hard, grinding work of dry adoration before the Hidden God. 392. "Each look of love to the Tabernacle causes a beat of grace-laden love in the Sacred Heart." (Fr. William Doyle, 1873 to 1917)
393. "As regards prayer, you should try to follow the attraction of the Holy Spirit, for all souls are not led by the same path. It would not be well to spend all the time in vocal prayer, there should be some meditation, thought or contemplation. Try 'basking in the sun of God's love,' that is, quietly kneeling before the Tabernacle, as you would sit enjoying the warm sunshine, not trying to do anything, except love Him; but realizing that, during all the time you are at His feet, more especially when dry and cold, grace is dropping down upon your soul and you are growing fast in holiness." (Fr. William Doyle, 1873 to 1917)
394. "From the Tabernacle Jesus seems to say, 'Stay with Me for it is towards evening and the day is now far spent'. This should urge me to come to visit Him often." (Fr. William Doyle, 1873 to 1917)

397. "Let us pay a visit to the Blessed Sacrament daily; 'Ecce Magister adest et vocat te.' Let us during these visits, whether short or long, always make acts of adoration, contrition, thanksgiving, and supplication. Let us make some little return of love for the infinite love shown to us by Him whom love keeps captive, day and night, on our altars." (Archbishop Thomas Joseph Carr, 1839 to 1917)

398. Jesus speaking to Blessed Charles - "In my unimaginable goodness, I did not merely give myself to you at my birth for a few hours or years: I am still in your hands, and shall be henceforth until the end of the world. Think of the unending good fortune I brought you in my birth: the ability to serve me—to serve me by serving your neighbor, to serve me myself, living there near you in the tabernacle. Not only can you serve me, you can also console me... How happy you should be to be able to console me at every moment of your lives! By becoming so small, so gentle a child, I was crying out to you: Have trust! Come close to me! Do not be afraid of me, come to me, and give me what children need: loving embraces. Do not be afraid, do not be so frightened in the presence of such a gentle baby, smiling at you and holding out his arms to you. He is your God, but he is all smiles and gentleness. Do not be afraid" (Blessed Charles de Foucauld, 1858 to 1916)
399. "What a tremendous delight, my God! To spend fifteen hours without anything else to do but look at You and tell You, 'Lord I love You!' Oh what sweet delight!" (Blessed Charles de Foucauld, 1858 to 1916)

405. "Jesus awaits your adoration in the Eucharist." (St. Luigi Guanella, 1842 to 1915)
406. "How beautiful to see the people of God praying before the Blessed Sacrament exposed." (St. Luigi Guanella, 1842 to 1915)
407. "The love of God presupposes faith, but faith does not really come alive and operative until it is animated by charity. Consequently, dear confreres, as we zealously try to enlighten minds, we ought not to forget that which can inflame hearts - Eucharistic adoration, the holy practice of frequent Communion..." (Venerable Louise Margaret Claret De La Touche, 1868 to 1915)
408. "Priests-Adorers, let us close in our ranks about the Tabernacle! Let us watch with jealous care over this Divine treasure committed to our charge. Let us weep and mourn before the Lord Jesus, so cruelly outraged in the Sacrament of His supreme love. May our ceaseless acts of reparation appease the divine anger, and disarm the awful vengeance of God! Let us multiply our hours of adoration, let us bring our faithful people to the foot of the altar..." (Fr. Patrick Augustine Sheehan, 1852 to 1913)

409. Are we too busy to volunteer to cover an hour of Eucharistic Adoration a week? Blessed Mary of the Passion spent many hours in Eucharistic Adoration. Listen to what the child Jesus, appearing to Blessed Mary, once told her: "I am in the Eucharist to dispense graces and extend mercy, but I receive only ingratitude, profanity and sacrileges...My beloved one, you make reparation with your adoration done in my presence". (Blessed Mary Of The Passion, 1866 to 1912)

411. Do we hesitate to signup for just one hour a week at our local Eucharistic Adoration Program? Most Saints would go much farther than this. That is what made them Saints. St. Tadini would spend long hours standing in Eucharistic Adoration, absorbed in the contemplation of God, despite a severe disability. He drew strength from adoration and prayer, the center of his life, to go and administer his duties as a Priest. (St. Arcangelo Tadini, 1846 to 1912)
412. The easiest road to becoming a Saint includes much Eucharistic Adoration in one's spiritual life. St. Candida Maria knew this as she would spend long hours in adoration of the Most Blessed Sacrament in the Tabernacle. She tried to stress the importance of this practice to all who entered her order. (St. Candida Maria of Jesus, 1845 to 1912)
413. All of us should follow our Saints' examples of great love for the Blessed Sacrament and volunteer to cover a specific hour of Eucharistic Adoration. From childhood Marie Tamisier had such a love and devotion to the Eucharist that she later became known as the 'Joan Of Arc of the Blessed Sacrament'. She was one of the key collaborators in organizing several of the first Eucharistic Congresses and her great wish was for people throughout the world to have this same devotion and love for the Eucharist she had. She wrote: "O Jesus, grant that Thy Eucharistic Life may be my life. May the sufferings that You suffer in the Host, also be my sufferings. And may I die after having loved Thee with all my heart!" (Marie Marthe Emilia Tamisier, 1834 to 1910)
414. Do we love Jesus enough to commit to spending one special specific hour with him each week? St. Mary Of The Cross had a great devotion and love for the Eucharist. She often spent long hours in prayer before the Blessed Sacrament besides attending Mass and said: "Let us all resign ourselves into His hands, and pray that in all things He may guide us to do His Holy Will... When thoughts of this or that come I turn to Him and say: 'Only what you will, my God. Use me as You will'." (St. Mary of the Cross, 1842 to 1909)

417. Frequent visits to the Blessed Sacrament were a hallmark of Blessed Mary's youth. She was found every Sunday afternoon, alone in the Church, adoring the Eucharist before going on to catechize others. (Blessed Mary Assunta, 1878 to 1905)

418. "When the Lord, in His infinite goodness and mercy, shall grant that I see devotion to the Eucharist deeply rooted in my beloved diocese, then there will be no more for me to do but to exclaim with the prophet Simeon: 'Now thou dost release thy servant, O Master, in peace because my eyes have seen the Savior thou has given us loved, thanked and venerated by those who are in the time and shall be in eternity my joy and my crown!.'" (Blessed John Baptist Scalabrini, 1839 to 1905)

419. Signup to cover an hour of Eucharistic Adoration. It will bring you great strength especially during times of trials and tribulations in your life. All the Saints knew this including Blessed Marchisio who said: "You see, I too find myself sometimes overwhelmed by the weight of trials; but after five minutes in front of the Blessed Sacrament, which is our all, I feel entirely invigorated. Do the same when you are depressed and discouraged." (Blessed Clement Marchisio, 1833 to 1903)

420. St. Geltrude had such a great love for the Blessed Sacrament that she founded an order called the Institute Of The Sisters Of The Blessed Sacrament with its primary purpose being Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration. In Pope Benedict XVI April 26th 2009 homily for the beatification of St. Geltrude the Pope stated: "She reminds us that "adoration must prevail over all the other charitable works", for it is from love for Christ who died and rose and who is really present in the Eucharistic Sacrament, that Gospel charity flows which impels us to see all human beings as our brothers and sisters." (St. Geltrude Commensoli, 1847 to 1903)

421. Though St. Gemma lived her life in spirit before the Blessed Sacrament, she yearned for the arrival of evening when she could physically attend Public Adoration. (St. Gemma Galgani, 1878 to 1903)

422. "Every Thursday (night) I continued to make the Holy Hour, but it sometimes happened that it would last even till 2:00am because Jesus was with me; and nearly always He would make me share in that sorrow which He felt in the Garden at the sight of so many of my sins and those of the whole world. A sorrow which can well be compared to the agony of death." (St. Gemma Galgani, 1878 to 1903)

423. "Let us go to Jesus. He is all alone and hardly anyone thinks of Him. Poor Jesus!" (St. Gemma Galgani, 1878 to 1903)

426. Blessed Ferrini's life was practically an unbroken elevation of his soul to God. He attended daily Mass and Eucharistic Adoration often. He could be completely absorbed in adoration - so much so that once he didn't notice someone stealing the mantle he was wearing across his shoulders. (Blessed Contardo Ferrini, 1859 to 1902)
427. Volunteering for one hour a week at our local Eucharistic Adoration program, and being faithful to that hour, leads to a deep spiritual life. St. Roscelli developed a genuine contemplative and mystical life from the long hours he spent in front of the Most Blessed Sacrament. Prayer and adoration was his life and whenever someone was trying to find this Saint they always checked the Chapel first where they often found him. From Eucharistic Adoration he found the strength and graces to go and administer his duties as a Priest. (St. Agostino Roscelli, 1818 to 1902)

19th Century Saint's Eucharistic Adoration Quotes

429. Do we ever consider taking one of the tougher hours of our Eucharistic Adoration program - that is the night (early morning) hours? Many of our Saints considered these tougher hours the most rewarding. St. Sharbel had a great devotion to the Eucharist and would spend 11 hours at night in Eucharist Adoration before saying Mass in the morning. (St. Sharbel Makhluf, 1828 to 1898)
430. "Do you realize that Jesus is there in the Blessed Sacrament expressly for you, for you alone? He burns with the desire to come into your heart." (St. Therese of Lisieux, 1873 to 1897)
431. "Frequently, only silence can express my prayer. However, this Divine Guest of the tabernacle understands all, even the silence of a child's soul filled with gratitude. 432. "To bear the exile of this valley of tears I need the glance of my Divine Savior. This glance full of love has revealed its charms to me. It has made me sense the happiness of Heaven. of God...I was never so happy as when I saw my roses touch the sacred Monstrance." (St. Therese of Lisieux, 1873 to 1897)

434. "Wherever I may be I will often think of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. I will fix my thoughts on the holy Tabernacle — even when I happen to wake up at night — adoring Him from where I am, calling to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, offering up to Him the action I am performing. I will install one telegraph cable from my study to the church, another from my bedroom, and a third from our refectory; and as often as I can, I will send messages of love to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament." (Venerable Andrew Beltrami, 1870 to 1897)

437. "It is in the Blessed Sacrament that we find strength. Without my daily Holy Hour before the Blessed Sacrament, I could not have lasted one single day." (St. Damien The Leper, 1840 to 1889)
438. Blessed Marie-Therese of Soubiran found Adoration of the Most Blessed Sacrament so important that she not only urged daily adoration for all but also urged one to prepare well for their visits before our beloved Lord. To the Sisters she was in charge of she wrote: "The Sisters must realize that to help them become saints, it is necessary to pray at night in order to obtain graces for the following day. The Sisters should use each day to prepare themselves for their night adoration." (Blessed Marie-Therese De Soubiran, 1835 to 1889)

St. John Bosco (1815 - 1888)

Founder of the Society Of St. Francis De Sales (Saletians) St. John Bosco emphasized adoration of the Blessed Sacrament and veneration of Mary. Here are some of his quotes about the importance of Eucharistic Adoration in our lives:

439. "Do you want the Lord to give you many graces? Visit Him often. Do you want Him to give you few graces? Visit Him rarely. Do you want the devil to attack you? Visit Jesus rarely in the Blessed Sacrament. Do you want him to flee from you? Visit Jesus often!" (St. John Bosco)
440. "Take refuge often at the feet of Jesus...My dear ones, the Visit to the Blessed Sacrament is an extremely necessary way to conquer the devil. Therefore, go often to visit Jesus and the devil will not come out victorious against you." (St. John Bosco)
441. "Trust all things to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament and to Mary Help of Christians and you will see what miracles are." (St. John Bosco)

444. "Night and day Jesus awaits us...Like a most tender mother, He opens His arms to us...He is there to draw us to Himself and lead us to paradise. Let us go visit Jesus often." (St. John Bosco)
445. "There are two things the devil is deadly afraid of: fervent Communions and frequent visits to the Blessed Sacrament." (St. John Bosco)
446. "Jesus could have limited his presence only to the celebration of Mass, but no! He wanted to make a permanent dwelling among us. Night and day he awaits us and offers himself to us at all times. Like a most tender mother, he opens his arms to us. He is there generously to give us his gifts. He is there to draw us to him and lead us to paradise with him. Oh! Let us go visit him often." (St. John Bosco)
447. "We envy the shepherds who went to visit the grotto of Bethlehem to see Him, kissed His little hand, and offered Him their gifts. "Lucky shepherds!" we exclaim. And yet there is no reason to envy them, for their fortune is ours, too. The same Jesus they visited in the grotto is in our tabernacle. The only difference is that the shepherds saw Him with the eyes of the body, whereas we see Him with the eyes of faith. Nothing will please Him more than our frequent visits to Him." (St. John Bosco)
448. "Go to confession and communion as often as your confessor allows, and when you can, visit Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament." (St. John Bosco)
449. "Go to the foot of the tabernacle and say one 'Our Father', 'Hail Mary', and 'Glory Be' when you can't do anymore. This is enough to strengthen you against temptations. If someone has faith, makes visits to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, and makes his daily meditation, I tell you, it will be impossible for him to sin." (St. John Bosco)

450. "Go to Jesus. He loves you and is waiting for you to give you many graces. He is on the altar surrounded by angels adoring and praying. Let them make some room for you and join them in doing what they do." (St. Mary Joseph Rosello, 1811 to 1888)
451. Can we volunteer to cover just one hour a week at our local adoration program to make up for the sins of the world? Our beloved Lord asks this of all souls, and much more, thru Blessed Maria of Jesus. During her long hours in Eucharistic Adoration every night our Lord made her understand that He was waiting for souls who would offer Him perpetual homage of reparation for the most subtle wounds made in His Sacred Heart. (St. Mary Joseph Rosello, 1811 to 1888)
452. "The Eucharist bathes the tormented soul in light and love. Then the soul appreciates these words, 'Come all you who are sick, I will restore your health'." (St. Bernadette Soubirous, 1844 to 1879)
453. Do we volunteer to cover an hour of Eucharistic Adoration at our local parish? This is what turns common Christians into great Saints. Virtually all the future saints did this, such as Blessed Marguerite who spent her whole life in the neighborhood she was born in. She had an immense love for Jesus in the Eucharist, before which she spent long hours in adoration at her local parish. She lived constantly in God's presence. (Blessed Marguerite Bays, 1815 to 1879)
454. "Go and find Him when your patience and strength run out and you feel alone and helpless. Jesus is waiting for you in the chapel. Say to Him, 'Jesus, you know exactly what is going on. You are all I have, and you know all things. Come to my help.' And then go, and don't worry about how you are going to manage. That you have told God about it is enough. He has a good memory." (St. Jeanne Jugan, 1792 to 1879)
455. Pius IX, who declared the Dogma of the Immaculate Conception, promoted Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration for the purpose of personal reparation for the wounds inflicted on Jesus. In 1868, for example, he granted permission for Perpetual Adoration to the Sisters Of The Second Order Of St. Dominic. (Pope Pius IX, 1792 to 1878)
456. The Blessed Virgin speaking to St. Catherine - "Come to the foot of the altar. Graces will be shed on all, great and little, especially upon those who seek for them." (St. Catherine Laboure, 1806 to 1876)
457. "Whenever I go to the chapel, I put myself in the presence of our good Lord, and I say to him, 'Lord, I am here. Tell me what you would have me to do' . . . And then, I tell God everything that is in my heart. I tell him about my pains and my joys, and then I listen. If you listen, God will also speak to you, for with the good Lord, you have to both speak and listen. God always speaks to you when you approach him plainly and simply." (St. Catherine Laboure, 1806 to 1876)

458. Besides promoting devotion to the Holy Face of Jesus Venerable Leo Dupont promoted Eucharistic Adoration just as vigorously. In 1849 he helped set up night Eucharistic Adoration in Tours France and had a strong desire that this be established in every parish throughout the world: "When shall we see Our Lord honored day and night in every parish through the Catholic world? I love to cherish the hope!" He often would go and help establish this nocturnal adoration at various parishes. (Venerable Leo Dupont, 1806 to 1876)
459. "How short, above all, seems the (Eucharistic Adoration) hour which has fallen to our lot!...Some (read books) or simply say their rosaries, but the greater number place themselves as suppliants at the feet of our Lord, speak to Him, and receive good thoughts from Him; these last find the hour exceedingly short." (Venerable Leo Dupont, 1806 to 1876)
460. "Yes, I am happy, perfectly happy; and do you wish to know where I find true happiness? At the feet of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament,..." (Fr. Augustine Mary of the Most Blessed Sacrament, 1821 to 1871)
461. "I would strongly urge that, even as the Magdalene anointed the Lord's feet with tears and perfumed oil, you too would pour out the perfume of constant prayer and contemplation at the foot of the tabernacle. I should like the Eucharist to become a burning flame for your soul, so that, immersed in that flame, it might emerge burning with love and great-heartedness. I should like to see this Eucharistic altar, on which Jesus is sacrificed, accept your offering too, so that you may become a victim of love, whose perfume rises to the throne of the Eternal God!" (Fr. Augustine Mary of the Most Blessed Sacrament, 1821 to 1871)
462. "The faith I have when I am in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament is so strong that I find it impossible to express what I feel...When the time comes to leave I must force myself to overcome the inclination to prolong my stay with Jesus." (St. Athony Mary Claret, 1807 to 1870)

St. Peter Julian Eymard (1811 - 1868)

Throughout his Priestly life he worked to promote devotion and adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. In 1856 he founded the "Congregation of the Blessed Sacrament" Religious Order devoted to adoration of the Most Blessed Sacrament. Here are some of his quotes about the importance of Eucharistic Adoration in our lives:

463. "The adoration of Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament is the end of the Church Militant, just as adoration of God in His glory is the end of the Church Triumphant. A holy rivalry, a concert of prayer, a harmony of divine service should exist between the heavenly court and the Eucharistic court here below, between the adorer and his mother the Church." (St. Peter Julian Eymard)

464. "Eucharistic Adoration is the greatest act of holiness on earth." (St. Peter Julian Eymard)
465. "The object of Eucharistic adoration is the divine person of our Lord Jesus Christ present in the most Blessed Sacrament. He is living there. He wants us to speak to him, and he will speak to us. Anybody may speak to our Lord. Is he not there for everybody? Does he not tell us, 'Come you all to me?'" (St. Peter Julian Eymard)
466. "Society will again someday become Christian won to Jesus Christ by the apostolate of Eucharistic Prayer." (St. Peter Julian Eymard)

In order, however, to succeed in it and avoid routine or dryness of mind and heart, adorers must seek inspiration in the grace of their vocation, in the various mysteries of the life of our Lord and of the Blessed Virgin, or in the virtues of the saints." (St. Peter Julian Eymard)
468. "When your hour is particularly difficult, rejoice all the more; your love will be greater for its suffering more. It is a privileged hour that will count for two." (St. Peter Julian Eymard)
469. "I am fully convinced that if it were humanly possible to fully understand the value of a Holy Hour everyone would make time to do it." (St. Peter Julian Eymard)
470. "Let us never forget that an age prospers or dwindles in proportion to its devotion to the Holy Eucharist. This is the measure of its spiritual life and its faith, of its charity and its virtue." (St. Peter Julian Eymard)
471. "Love cannot triumph unless it becomes the one passion of our life. Without such passion we may produce isolated acts of love; but our life is not really won over or consecrated to an ideal. Until we have a passionate love for our Lord in the Most Blessed Sacrament we shall accomplish nothing." (St. Peter Julian Eymard)
472. "Eucharistic adoration is the greatest of actions. To adore is to share the life of Mary on earth when she adored the Word Incarnate in her virginal womb, when she adored Him in the Crib, on Calvary, in the divine Eucharist." (St. Peter Julian Eymard)

477. "Among the graces which Jesus gave to His foster-father is that special to an adorer of the Blessed Sacrament. That is the one we must ask of St. Joseph. Have confidence, strong confidence in him. Take him as the patron and the model of your life of adoration." (St. Peter Julian Eymard)
478. "As we grow to know His voice better (in Adoration) and as our hearts become more sympathetic to Him in emptying themselves of what is not him, our Lord manifests Himself in a clearer and more intimate manner...He gives the soul a divine conviction which overshadows the light of human reason." (St. Peter Julian Eymard)
479. "Jesus Christ in His Sacrament lives the same life of love which consumed Him in His mortal days. In His sacramental state He continues to adore His Father by His depthless self-abasement. He is still the Mediator and Interceder with divine goodness for the salvation of men." (St. Peter Julian Eymard)
480. "Come, let the kingdom of Jesus Christ be established in you! Public Exposition of the Most Blessed Sacrament is God's last grace to man." (St. Peter Julian Eymard)

482. "Today more than ever have we need of men who, by their self-immolation, disarm the anger of God inflamed by the ever increasing crimes of nations. 484. "The Church shows to everyone her Bridegroom in the radiant monstrance...Her friends are in adoration and her enemies tremble. Jesus shows Himself to all men; He gives His blessing to the good; He looks on sinners with compassion; He calls them and draws them to Himself." (St. Peter Julian Eymard)
485. "Will you remain cold and indifferent (in taking part in Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration)? No! If there are societies for the spreading of evil, you will form a society for the spreading of good, a society of adoration." (St. Peter Julian Eymard)
486. "Look upon the hour of adoration assigned to you as an hour in paradise. Go to your adoration as one would to heaven, to the divine banquet. You will then long for that hour and hail it with joy. Take delight in fostering a longing for it in your heart. Tell yourself, 'In four hours, in two hours, in one hour, our Lord will give me an audience of grace and love. He has invited me; he is waiting for me; he is longing for me'." (St. Peter Julian Eymard)

487. "Adore Jesus in the Divine Host by offering the sovereign homage of your mind to him who is its sovereign truth, of your heart to him who is its God, of your will to him who is its Lord." (St. Peter Julian Eymard)

488. "Like Moses, full of zeal to announce the teaching of the Divine Master when he came down from Mount Sinai, like the Apostles coming from the Cenacle, so should the priests go from the church (in Eucharistic Adoration) straight to the people to announce to them the Word of God." (St. Peter Julian Eymard)

489. "The great evil of our time is that people do not go to Jesus Christ as to their very Saviour and God. They abandon the only foundation, the only law, the only grace of salvation... What is to be done then? We must return to the fountain of life, and not just to the historical Jesus or to the Jesus glorified in heaven, but rather to Jesus in the Eucharist. It is necessary to bring him out from the shadows so that he can once again take his place at the head of Christian society." (St. Peter Julian Eymard)

490. "Going to the source, to Jesus, especially Jesus in the Eucharist. That is the mission and glory of our century, so it will be great among the greatest centuries, and saint among the most holy. As it is well known, a century grows or decreases because of his worship for the Holy Eucharist. This is life and the extent of his faith, his love and virtue." (St. Peter Julian Eymard)

491. "Adore and visit Jesus, abandoned and forsaken by men in His Sacrament of Love. Man has time for everything except for visits to His Lord and God, who is waiting and longing for us in the Blessed Sacrament." (St. Peter Julian Eymard)

492. "How kind is our Sacramental Jesus! He welcomes you at any hour of the day or night. His Love never knows rest. He is always most gentle towards you. By the reception He gives to you, one would think He has need of you to make Him happy." (St. Peter Julian Eymard)

493. "To speak of the Blessed Sacrament is to speak of what is most sacred. How often, when we are in a state of distress, those to whom we look for help leave us; or what is worse, add to our affliction by heaping fresh troubles upon us. He is ever there waiting to help us." (St. Mary Euphrasia Pelletier, 1796 to 1868)

497. "Devotion to the Blessed Sacrament is the queen of all devotions. It is the central devotion of the Church. All others gather round it, and group themselves there as satellites; for others celebrate his mysteries; this is Himself. It is the universal devotion. No one can be without it, in order to be a Christian. How can a man be a Christian who does not worship the living Presence of Christ?" (Fr. Frederick William Faber, 1814 to 1863)
498. "There is more sweetness in one hour of prayer before Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament than in all the world's crowded theaters, and brilliant drawing rooms, and giddy diversions, and social gatherings." (St. Gabriel Possenti, 1838 to 1862)

I have one desire, that of being near you in the Blessed Sacrament. You are the sweet bridegroom of my soul. My Jesus, my love, my all, gladly would I endure hunger, thirst, heat, and cold to remain always with you in the Blessed Sacrament." (St. John Neumann, 1811 to 1860)
501. Jesus speaking to St. John Neumann on establishing Forty Hours Devotion - "(I shall) pour out my grace in the Blessed Sacrament without prejudice to My honor. Fear no profanation, therefore; hesitate no longer to carry out your design for my glory." (St. John Neumann, 1811 to 1860)

521. "If we knew how profitable those visits are, we should be constantly prostrate before the altar. The Saints understood this truth; they knew that Jesus Christ is the source of all grace, and whenever they encountered any difficulty or wished to obtain any particular favor, they ran to Jesus Christ in the Blessed Sacrament." (St. Marcellin Champagnat, 1789 to 1840)
522. The Franciscan charism, lived out in the spirit of the Gospel, has borne significant fruits through his witness as an ardent adorer of the Eucharist, as a prudent and wise guide of the souls who sought his counsel, and as a man with a great devotion to the Immaculate Conception of Mary, whose "son and perpetual servant" he considered himself to be... When we contemplate the Lord at Mass, raised up by the priest after the consecration of the bread and wine, or when we devoutly adore him exposed in the monstrance, we renew our faith with profound humility, as Frei Galvão did in "laus perennis", in a constant attitude of adoration." ### 18th Century Saint's Eucharistic Adoration Quotes

Later on in life she committed to visiting the Blessed Sacrament thirty three times a day in honor of our Lord's thirty three years of life on earth. While we cannot hope to do all St. Mary Frances did we can at least follow her footsteps and volunteer to cover one specific Holy Hour a week at the Eucharistic Adoration program at our local church. (St. Mary Frances Of The Five Wounds Of Jesus, 1715 to 1791)

One thing that was closest to his heart was the introduction of Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration of which he succeeded in 130 parishes during his lifetime. Preaching about the necessity of conversion St. Leonard urged people to go before the Blessed Sacrament : "Brothers, at the feet of Our Lord, let us protest that we want to save our soul, cost what it may. 561. "I desire but this one grace, and long to be consumed like a burning candle in His holy Presence every moment of the life that remains to me. 663. "How many of you say: I should like to see His face, His garments, His shoes. You do see Him, you touch Him, you eat Him. He gives Himself to you, not only that you may see Him, but also to be your food and nourishment." (St. John Chrysostom, 344 to 407)

4th Century Saint's Eucharistic Adoration Quotes

664. The Acoematae were a group of 300 to 400 Monks (sometimes thousands in one place), with many monasteries, that dedicated themselves to giving prayer and praise to God on a 24hour/7day a week basis as early as 400 A.D.. Their influence on today's Christian life is considerable. The splendor of their religious services largely contributed to shape our liturgy. Our modern Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration programs are a remnant of them. (Alexander Akimites and The Sleepless Ones, 400)
665. Do we believe in the Real Presence strongly enough to volunteer to cover a specific hour of Eucharistic Adoration? All of the early Church Fathers believed strongly in this Real Presence, of the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar, including St. Gregory of Nyssa who wrote: "He offered Himself for us, Victim and Sacrifice, and Priest as well, and 'Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world.' When did He do this? When He made His own Body food and His own Blood drink for His disciples; for this much is clear enough to anyone, that a sheep cannot be eaten by a man unless its being eaten be preceded by its being slaughtered. This giving of His own Body to His disciples for eating clearly indicates that the sacrifice of the Lamb has now been completed." (St. Gregory of Nyssa, 335 to 394)
666. "(Jesus) said: 'This is my Body'; therefore the Eucharist is not the figure of his Body and Blood, as some have said, talking nonsense in their stupid minds, but it is in very truth the Blood and Body of Christ." (St. Macarius the Great, 300 to 391)
667. Do we wish to convert our children? We should follow the example of Saints such as St. Monica who, besides attending daily Mass, would also visit the Blessed Sacrament twice a day praying for her worldly child. Her prayers definitely worked, as today we know her child as St. Augustine. (St. Monica, 322 to 387)
668. Our Saints strong belief in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar led them to adoration of the Eucharist. St. Cyril of Jerusalem wrote: "Do not, therefore, regard the Bread and the Wine as simply that; for they are, according to the Master's declaration, the Body and Blood of Christ. Even the senses suggest to you the other, let faith make you firm..... Having learned these things, and being fully convinced that the apparent Bread is not bread, even though it is sensible to the taste, but the Body of Christ; and that the apparent Wine is not wine, even though the taste would have it so,...." (St. Cyril of Jerusalem, 315 to 386)
669. "We should not accept in silence the benefactions of God, but return thanks for them." (St. Basil The Great, 330 to 379)
670. "Eternal Son of the living God, Whom I here acknowledge really present! I adore Thee with all the powers of my soul. Prostrate with the Angels in the most profound reverence, I love Thee, O my Saviour, Whom I now behold on the throne of Thy love! O dread Majesty, O infinite Mercy! Save me, forgive me! Grant that I may never more be separated from Thee." (St. Basil The Great, 330 to 379)

671. "Go with Him, as His inseparable companion, to the wedding feast of Cana, and drink of the wine of His blessing. Let you have ever before you the Face of the Lord, and look upon His beauty, and let your earnest gaze turn nowhere away from His most sweet countenance. Go before Him into a desert place and see the wonder of His works, where He multiplied in His own Holy Hands the bread that sufficed the great multitude. Go, my brother, go forward, and with all the love of your soul follow Christ wherever He may go... And lovingly behold Him as taking bread into His hands, He blesses it, and breaks it, as the outward form of His own Immaculate Body; and the chalice which He blessed as the outward form of His Precious Blood, and gave to His Disciples; and be you also a partaker of His sacraments." (St. Ephrem of Syria, 306 to 373)
672. "All the powers of the universe bow down in (Eucharistic) adoration and praise, and with a thousand voices exalt Thine infinite Majesty, which fills both Heaven and earth. Christian people, let us unite our voices with theirs..." (St. Hilary of Poitiers, 315 to 367)
673. The "Oblationaires" of St. Ambrose were pioneers of Eucharistic Adoration outside of Mass. These were a group of 10 poor men and 10 poor women who, on feast days, would also bring the people's oblation of bread and wine to the altar at the offertory at Mass. (St. Ambrose, 315 to 367)
674. "Let your door stand open to receive Him, unlock your soul to Him, offer Him a welcome in your mind, and then you will see the riches of simplicity, the treasures of peace, the joy of grace. Or if they deny that in Christ also the mysteries of the incarnation are to be adored, in which the very marks of His deity are seen and where we note the sure paths of the heavenly Logos, they should read that the apostles also adored Him when He rose in the glory of His flesh (Luke 24:52). ... The prophet says (Ps. 99:5) that the earth which the Lord Jesus took upon himself, when he took on flesh, should be adored. Therefore by "footstool" we understand the earth, and by this earth we understand the flesh, which we today also adore in the mysteries and which the apostles adored in the Lord Jesus, as we have said above." (St. Ambrose, 315 to 367)
677. "You Yourself, O Christ are my all. For you I keep myself chaste, and holding aloft my shining lamp I run to meet You, my Spouse." (St. Methodius Of Olympus, ? to 311)

2nd Century Saint's Eucharistic Adoration Quotes

680. The belief in the Real Presence in the Most Blessed Sacrament of the altar was evident from the earliest writings of the Church Fathers such as St. Justin Martyr who wrote: "For not as common bread nor common drink do we receive these; but since Jesus Christ our Savior was made incarnate by the word of God and had both flesh and blood for our salvation, so too, as we have been taught, the food which has been made into the Eucharist by the Eucharistic Prayer set down by Him, and by the change of which our blood and flesh is nourished, is both the Flesh and the Blood of that incarnated Jesus." Belief in the Real Presence is the whole reason the practice of Eucharistic Adoration developed throughout the history of the Church and the reason we should signup to cover a specific hour of Eucharistic Adoration. (St. Justin Martyr, 103 to 165)
